DEVELOPING LOBOS FOR LIFE!

Vision Statement

The University of New Mexico athletics aspires to be the premier athletic program in our Conference and recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics with an international reputation for excellence.

Core Values

Student Athlete Experience - We provide an environment that promotes personal, academic, athletic, and social development. We prepare Lobos for Life!

Integrity - We are honest, respectful, and accountable.

Excellence - We maximize our efforts and talents to ensure success of the Lobos.

Respect - We value the importance of diversity, fairness, goodwill and sportsmanship.

Lobo Pride - We support an atmosphere that embraces school spirit, honors tradition, and develops Lobos for Life!

2025 Media Policies

New Mexico Media Junket
In the fall, the New Mexico Media Luncheons return on Tuesday (let us all rejoice), with the time TBA, pending the completion of practice and the progress of other sports in their respective seasons. Generally, they are anywhere from noon to 1 pm Coach Jason Eck is available after the other fall sport coaches. Audio and video clips are available from the UNM communications office and also at www.golobos.com. The press conferences are also streamed on GoLobos.com by LoboTV. Please note that the Mountain West no longer conducts a football coaches teleconference. The junket is on the third floor of the Tow Diehm Football Complex.

Jason Eck Interview Opportunities
Coach Eck is available after practice and during game week. After road games, Coach Eck will be available via ZOOM (links will be sent to participating media).

New Mexico Player Interview Opportunities
The UNM athletics communications office will assist in arranging all student-athlete interviews. In the fall, the main time for interviews is after practice. Interviews will be on Tuesday and Wednesday, with Wednesday being the last day for player interviews. For extended interviews, please get in touch with the Communications Office to arrange a more convenient time. Players are not off-limits unless they have done something that would cause them to be off-limits. Monday interviews can be arranged as long as the student-athletes aren't in class and we know ahead of time. If we practice on Mondays, we will have players available after that practice as well. Our goal is to secure the interviews you need, not to say no. Please ask, and we will do our best to make it happen.

Postgame: The UNM locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the weight room in the Tow Diehm football building and outside the locker room for road games. UNM communications will have Coach Eck and two players address the media, and other requested players will be available for one-on-one interviews. The student-athletes will be available after the press conferences for one-on-one opportunities. For road games, we will have ZOOM press conferences. For UNM media not in the stadium, Zoom links will be sent on the day of the game.

Wireless in the Press Box
The press box at University Stadium has WiFi capability. Access is free, but users requiring access must have their own internal or external wireless cards. Phone lines are available. The new WiFi installed in 2019 has worked great, but we finally updated the password. I asked Charley Bickell, our intern, and he knows how to do that better than I do, so you will need to check the password on the gameday placesetting card.

www.collegepressbox.com
CollegePressBox.com provides the media with a one-stop access to updated contact information, media guides, game books, photos, quotes, links, and more for each of the league's schools and the Mountain West office. The MW office will provide log-in information to accredited media, or you can apply for a password by sending an email to password@college-pressbox.com.

Live Stats
The University of New Mexico will utilize StatBroadcast in 2025, and Geoff Grammer may once again take joy in it. Media members for any game (home/road/neutral/the ISS) can visit www.golobos.com/fbstats.

Ticket Information
- online at www.golobos.com/tickets
- by calling 925-5858 or toll-free at 800-955-HOWL.
- Lobo Ticket Office inside the Pit at the NW corner of University & Cesar Chavez boulevards from 8:30-5 Monday-Friday
- UNM Bookstore (Bookstore Ticket Office is closed on Mondays). For more information, call the New Mexico Athletics Ticket Office at (505) 925-5626 or 1-800-955-HOWL (4695). Call (505) 925-5500 to purchase group tickets and ask to speak with a customer service representative.

On Game Day, the northeast box office at University Stadium opens four hours before kickoff, and the Lobo Ticket Office at University Arena opens three hours before game time. The Northwest University Stadium box office opens 90 minutes before kickoff.

Lobo Talk & The Lobo Coaches Show
In the fall, host Robert Portnoy and coach Jason Eck discuss UNM football at Lobo Talk on Tuesdays. The show airs from 7–8 pm at The Sports Bar/Book at Sandia Resort and Casino. Fans can call 866-350-4309 to ask Coach Eck a question. Also in the fall, the Lobo Coaches Show will be produced by LoboTV and air on Wednesdays at 6:30 pm on KOB.

Game Credentials
Regular UNM media will receive game credentials before the start of the season. Media members with season credentials will also receive a parking pass for the Baseball East lot, located across from the stadium.

Visiting team media should request single-game credentials through their team's media relations office. Media passes work as parking passes for the Baseball South lots.

Media members not directly associated with a team can submit requests via our media request link, located near the top of the football page on GoLobos.com.

For media members picking up credentials at the will-call location without parking passes, it is located in the Northeast corner of the stadium, near Gates 7 or 8. With parking passes, credentials will be located at the University Drive entrance to the Baseball South lot, where you will meet the parking attendant. This should allow you to get your credential without having to wait in line or deal with parking on the north side of the stadium.

Parking
Media parking is located across and just south of the stadium off University Drive. Media members can park in the Baseball East lot, which is located next to University Drive. The Baseball East lot entrance is off University Drive south, directly across from the Stadium West lot entrance, and it's the driveway between Santa Ana Star Field and the Davalos Practice Center.

Visiting Radio
The visiting radio booth is located on the fourth level of the main press box, next to the main media area.

The University of New Mexico

Founded in 1889 as New Mexico's flagship institution, The University of New Mexico now occupies nearly 800 acres near old Route 66 in the heart of Albuquerque, a metropolitan area of more than 500,000 people. From the magnificent mesas to the west, past the banks of the historic Rio Grande to the Sandia Mountains to the east, Albuquerque is a blend of culture and cuisine, styles and stories, people, pursuits, and panoramas.

Offering a distinctive campus environment with a Pueblo Revival architectural theme, the campus buildings echo nearby Pueblo Indian villages. The nationally recognized campus arboretum and the popular duck pond offer an outstanding botanical experience in the midst of one of New Mexico's great public open spaces.

The People

As a Hispanic-Serving Institution, the University represents a cross-section of cultures and backgrounds. In the fall of 2024, 23,228 students attended the main campus, with another 6,000+ students at branch campuses and education centers.

UNM boasts an outstanding faculty that includes a Nobel Laureate, two MacArthur Fellows, 35 Fulbright scholars, and several members of national academies. Faculty publish in many professional journals, including Scientific American, The New England Journal of Medicine, and Nature. UNM professors have been featured in Newsweek, The Los Angeles Times, BusinessWeek, People Magazine, Parade Magazine, U.S. News & World Report, and The New Yorker, among others. They have shared their expertise on CNN, The Today Show, Good Morning America, National Geographic, and other news shows.

UNM employs more than 20,000 people statewide, including employees of University Hospital. It has more than 159,000 active alumni, with Lobos in every state and over 1,400 alumni outside the U.S. More than half of UNM's alumni choose to remain in New Mexico.

The Places

The University has branch campuses in Gallup, Los Alamos, Taos, and Valencia County, as well as the extension UNM Health Sciences Rio Rancho Campus. UNM offers bachelor's and graduate degree completion programs throughout the state via its Extended Learning program and has education centers located at the four branch campus locations, as well as in Santa Fe, Farmington, and at Kirtland Air Force Base. UNM's libraries, museums, galleries, and performance spaces are a rich cultural resource for the state. Home to the Lobos and contenders in the Mountain West, UNM athletics draws fans from all over. University Arena, also known as "The Pit," is one of college basketball's most famous and recognizable buildings. The Pit was ranked 5th by the Travel Channel as one of the best college basketball venues.

The Programs

UNM is a place where cutting-edge research and creative endeavors flourish. UNM research injects millions of dollars into New Mexico's economy, funds new advancements in healthcare, and enhances teaching, providing students with valuable hands-on training in state-of-the-art laboratories.

The Health Sciences Center is the state's most extensive integrated health care treatment, research, and education organization. U.S. News and World Report's 2018 edition of "America's Best Graduate Schools" ranks the UNM School of Medicine 20th in primary care and 72nd in research. Additionally, in health disciplines, UNM's nursing-midwifery program is ranked seventh. The UNM School of Law is ranked 88th, with a notable 14th ranking in clinical training. UNM College of Fine Arts is ranked 48th, with its photography program ranked fifth in the nation. The engineering program is ranked 83rd nationally, with electrical engineering coming in at 75th, and Chemical Engineering ranking at 72nd.

UNM is one of only a dozen Hispanic-Serving Institutions in the U.S. that are also classified by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education as a R1: Doctoral Universities with very high research activity.

Among the University's outstanding research units are the Center for Advanced Research Computing, the Cancer Center, the New Mexico Engineering Research Institute, the Center for High Technology Materials, the Design Planning Assistance Center, the Innovation Academy, and the Mind Research Network.

UNM Traditions-The Lobo Nickname

Several legends have arisen over the years regarding how The University of New Mexico acquired the nickname "Lobo" as its official moniker. When the University began playing football in 1892, the team was referred to as "The University Boys" or "Varsities" to distinguish themselves from the prep school kids.

The student body, as early as 1917, began to seriously explore the possibilities for both a mascot and a new name for the student newspaper, which was then called the "U.N.M. Weekly." Several names for the paper were suggested, including The Rattler, the Sand Devil, the Ki-yo-te, and the Cherry and Silver. However, there was no single name that struck a responsive chord among the students, and when school opened in the Fall of 1920, the UNM Weekly was still there.

On September 22, 1920, sophomore George S. Bryan, editor of the UNM Weekly and student manager of the football team, was present at a Student Council meeting to suggest that the University teams be given a mascot name, as many universities had them at that time. Bryan suggested Lobo, the Spanish word for wolf, as the nickname. The name was enthusiastically received. The October 1 issue of the student paper said, "The Lobo is respected for his cunning, feared for his prowess, and is the leader of the pack. It is the ideal name for the Varsity boys who go forth to battle for the glory of the school. All together now; fifteen rahs for the LOBOS."

The University of New Mexico

From that beginning, the Lobo nickname has remained with The University of New Mexico for 100 years.

UNM Traditions - The Lobo Mascot

After "Lobo" was adopted as the school's nickname in 1920, it was not long thereafter that a real Lobo became the mascot.

Bruno Dieckmann, a 1902 graduate and by 1920 a successful Albuquerque insurance and real estate agent, acquired the first Lobo for the University at his own expense. At the time, he was treasurer of the Athletic Association and "one of the most admired men in town."

Elsie Ruth Chant, class of 1923, recalled, "All of the girls on campus wanted to be seen with him. He was an accomplished concert violinist as well as being a successful businessman, and he was rich. He drove a Stutz Bearcat convertible around town, and all of the girls would compete to get rides with him. Sometimes he had five or six girls in the car, and when he finally got married, he left broken hearts all over campus. Anyway, he either caught it himself or he paid to have a wolf captured in the Mount Taylor area. The wolf was brought into the school, and a student by the name of Bowman would take it on a leash to the football practice area."

A government trapper named Jim Young caught a wolf pup on the Floyd Lee Ranch near Mount Taylor in the western part of the state. The cub became the responsibility of the cheerleaders, and it appeared in harness at every football game. However, in the late 20s, a child teased the wolf, and the child was bitten during one of the games. UNM officials were forced to dispose of the wolf, as one historian put it, "for fear other ill-bred brats might become tempted to play with the wolf and bring a damage suit."

A live wolf has never been a part of the athletics scene since. In the early 1960s, a human mascot named "Lobo Louie" was created. A second mascot, "Lobo Lucy," was created in the early 1980s. Both are now members of the school's cheerleading squad.

UNM Traditions - Cherry and Silver

The most common origin of New Mexico's school colors dates back over 100 years. The school colors in the early 1890s were black and gold. Ms. Harriet Jenness, a faculty member who taught drawing, Delsarte (drama), penmanship, and music, suggested a change in school colors because black and gold did not give a true feeling of New Mexico. She suggested the crimson evening glow of the majestic Sandia Mountains to the east. The silver came from when students and faculty took picnics in the Sandias and noted the Rio Grande looked like a silver ribbon winding through the valley below. The faculty and staff enthusiastically adopted her ideas. Later, cherry replaced crimson, the color of a Sandia sunset. Miss Jenness died in 1895, two years before the colors were made "official." From 1973 to 1979, UNM Athletics added turquoise to the palette of official school colors. The football team wore turquoise jerseys at home during those years. Cherry and silver returned as the predominant colors in 1980.

UNM Traditions - The Alma Mater

The Alma Mater (in Latin, "Nourishing" or "Dear Mother") was a source of contention at UNM in 1947. The original Alma Mater was set to the tune of "Annie Lyle," which was an unpopular tune among the student body for an extended period. The student body voted in a general election to change the Alma Mater and found Glee Club Director Craig Summers to oblige. Mr. Summers and his father wrote the present Alma Mater three years before and called it "The New Mexico Hymn."

New Mexico, New Mexico
We sing to honor thee.
This golden haze of college days
Will live in memory.
This praise we sing will ever ring
With truth and loyalty, New Mexico, your fame we know
Will last eternally.

UNM Traditions - The Fight Song

The UNM fight Song was written in 1930. The music to the Fight Song was written by Dean Lena Clauve, who served the University for 32 years as a professor of music education and as the Dean of Women. Dr. George St. Clair, professor in the English Department, wrote the lyrics.

Hail to thee, New Mexico,
Thy loyal sons are we. Marching down the field we go,
Fighting for thee.
RAH! RAH! RAH!
Now we pledge our faith to thee,
Never shall we fail.
Fighting ever, yielding never.
HAIL! HAIL! HAIL!

Center for Student-Athlete Success

Mission
The Lobo Center for Student-Athlete Success, in collaboration with the University of New Mexico, offers support services to prospective, current, and former student-athletes, aiming to enhance their academic and personal success. Student-athletes are encouraged to develop personal responsibility, intelligent decision-making, and leadership skills through the provision of educational experiences both inside and outside the classroom. The Lobo Center also celebrates the academic and civic achievements of our student-athletes.

Services Offered
Study Hall
The study halls are sport-specific and designed to accommodate each athletic team in a structured and professional academic setting. The atmosphere creates an environment that fosters learning and effective group facilitation.

Each team study hall is staffed and monitored by at least one study hall monitor. The study hall monitors are proficient in a wide range of subjects and assist the student-athletes as needed.

Athletic Computer Labs
The athletic computer lab serves as an academic aid to student-athletes, with its primary purpose being to support the scholastic pursuits of student-athletes at the University of New Mexico.

Laptop Computers
Laptop computers are available to all student-athletes on a first-come, first-served basis. The laptops are for student-athletes to use when they are traveling for competitions.

Learning Strategist
The Center also has an in-house Learning Strategist devoted to providing support to student-athletes who have been diagnosed with a learning disability, as well as those who need additional instruction in specific content areas and general study skills. The Learning Strategist also offers workshops that focus on study skills and time management. Individual appointments are available as well as class-specific reviews.

Books on Loan
A benefit of being a student-athlete on scholarship is an in-house bookroom where student-athletes can get their textbooks for their classes. Our bookroom administrator can look up students' class schedules to determine the necessary textbooks, which eliminates the time-consuming tasks of visiting the bookstore to research the books for each class and then waiting in long lines to purchase them.

Academic Monitoring
The Student Support Staff, housed in the Lobo Center, monitors the progress of student-athletes. Three times a semester, instructors will provide feedback on the academic progress of student-athletes. Coaches receive progress forms during the 4th, 8th, and 12th weeks of the academic semester. The information provided in these forms is forwarded to coaches and used to support student-athletes in their educational progress.

Academic Advisement
Each student-athlete at UNM is required to meet with their athletic academic advisor at least once a semester for class registration advisement. Once a major is declared, the student-athlete is required to meet their assigned major advisor at least once per semester and then return a completed pre-enrollment form to their assigned athletic advisor. An athletic academic advisor is always available to answer any questions a student-athlete may have.

University 101
University 101 is a three (3) credit hour course designed to help freshmen student-athletes successfully transition into life and learning at the university. This course provides freshman student-athletes with a special orientation to the university community, the UNM athletics program, and the NCAA rules and regulations. Although the course does not fulfill core curriculum requirements, it is applicable towards elective credit. All incoming freshmen scholarship student-athletes are required to take the class.

University Stadium

Entering its 64th season, University Stadium is the home of the New Mexico Lobos. The stadium complex has undergone numerous upgrades over the past few seasons, including the addition of a new athletic performance center in the Tow Diehm Football Building, the largest scoreboard and video board in the Mountain West, and a new synthetic playing surface installed in 2021. The latest addition is the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center, which opened in 2023 and is located inside the south end of the stadium.

The stadium opened its gates Sept. 17, 1960, when UNM hosted the National University of Mexico. The Lobos thumped their foreign visitors, 77-6, UNM's most significant margin of victory at University Stadium.

Before 1960, UNM played its home games at Zimmerman Field (1938-59) and University Field (1892-1937), where Ortega Hall, the Humanities building, and Woodward Hall presently stand.

DIRECTIONS

Located on the southeast corner of Avenida Cesar Chavez and University Boulevard, University Stadium can be easily accessed by exiting off I-25, just south of the Big-I, at Avenida Cesar Chavez. Head east on Avenida Cesar Chavez. After crossing University Boulevard, University Stadium is located on the right.

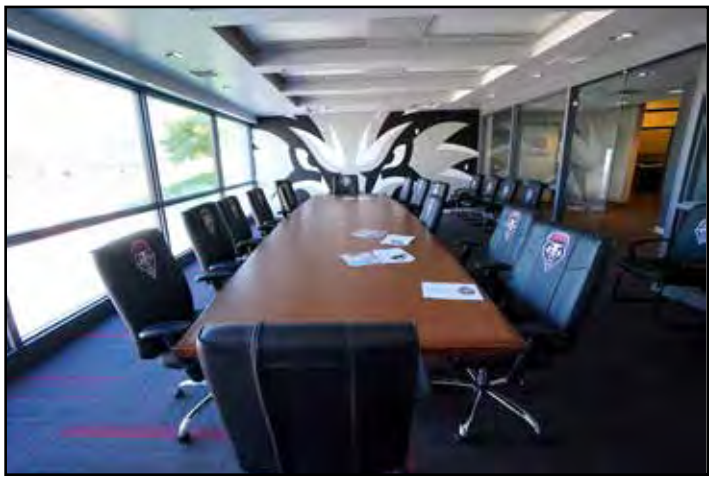
L.F. "Tow" Diehm Football Facility

Lobo Football's home is the L.F. "Tow" Diehm Football Facility, a large, all-encompassing building at the south end of University Stadium. Named for former trainer Tow Diehm and completed in 1995, the facility houses UNM's locker room, athletic performance center, training room, medical areas, team offices, meeting rooms, and a hospitality area. On game days, the third-floor hospitality area serves as a premium seating area on the U.S. Bank Club Level, with indoor and outdoor seating, climate control, carving stations, and a full bar.

Tow Diehm did as much for Lobo athletics as anyone. He came to UNM in 1957 to serve as the school's athletics trainer, a position he would hold for 31 years. It was during that time that Diehm treated and befriended thousands of student-athletes. Elevated to associate athletics director in 1988, Diehm initiated lobbying efforts with the state legislature to secure funding for a desperately needed athletics training facility.

His numerous trips to Santa Fe led to the construction of the magnificent facility that now bears his name. Diehm was also instrumental in prompting legislators to pass a tuition waiver bill for out-of-state student-athletes, which provides considerable savings to all of the state's four-year institutions. Although he officially semi-retired in 1992, Diehm continued to lobby members of the legislature on behalf of UNM until he died in 1998.



New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center

The New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center broke ground in the spring of 2022 and opened in April of 2023. The 11,312-square-foot facility (9,774 square feet on the weight training floor and 1,538 square feet on the cardio mezzanine) allows all Lobo athletic teams to have a new space in which to continue their athletic performance training.

Located in the South End Zone of University Stadium, the facility's progress was visible during the 2022 football season on television, broadcast on CBS Sports Network, FS1, and FS2.

"I'm grateful for our continued partnership with New Mexico Mutual," said then Vice President/Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez. "The investment in our student-athletes by a local company will allow for the very best for all our student-athletes. As we continue to strive for championships, both in the Mountain West and nationally, the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center will be a key piece towards realizing those goals."

He added, "I want to sincerely thank New Mexico Mutual President & CEO Kellie Mixon for her strong and continued support of Lobo Athletics, as well as Norm Becker, former CEO when this project was taking root."

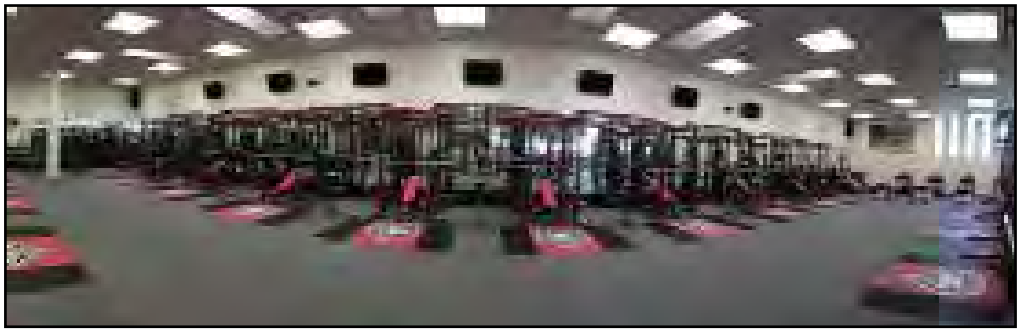
With its emphasis on physical fitness, the NMMCTC aligns with New Mexico Mutual's commitment to the health and well-being of all New Mexicans, as well as its focus on New Mexico's workforce. A ribbon-cutting ceremony and tours of the new space marked the grand opening, which more than doubled the size of the previous athletic performance space at UNM. The NMMCTC houses all new athletic performance equipment, including free weights and stations, as well as a cardio area.

The facility, connected to the football facility, is large enough to accommodate all Lobo teams, allowing for multiple teams to utilize the facility simultaneously. The facility will also enable UNM's medical and athletic training staff to use the latest technology in both injury prevention and injury rehabilitation.

The New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center is UNM's first new facility since the construction of the McKinnon Family Tennis Stadium, which opened in time for the 2014-15 tennis season, and the R.D. and Joan Dale Hubbard Baseball Clubhouse, which opened in 2016. The Mark Paulsen Athletic Performance Center is also undergoing renovations.

Mark Paulsen Athletic Performance Center

The Mark Paulsen Athletic Performance Center is currently undergoing a massive state-of-the-art renovation to provide the Lobo Football team with nearly double the previous space dedicated to maximizing UNM's strength and conditioning capabilities, allowing for the best implementation of the latest technologies. The space underwent a large-scale renovation in 2014, but that renovation pales in comparison to the ongoing 2025 renovation, which will continue into 2026.



On September 18, 2023, the facility was renamed as the Mark Paulsen Strength Center after the former Lobo strength coach, widely credited for helping build the toughness of the Lobo football teams of the late 1990s and 2000s. Those programs are regarded as some of the toughest to ever play in the Mountain West.

The new space (INFORMATION WILL GO HERE)

The new Athletic Performance Center for Football is one of many major facility upgrade for the program, joining the FieldTurf installation in 2021, the Mountain West's largest scoreboard at the time in 2013, a brand new state-of-the-art video board in 2025, a state-of-the-art sound system for the stadium in 2015 and refurbishing the office space, including all meeting rooms, in Tow Diehm in 2017. The 2018 season marked the first renovation of the locker room in over 30 years. In 2024, a new dynamic lightning system was installed in University Stadium.

With a host of former players and coaches in attendance, the revamped athletic performance center was officially renamed the Mark Paulsen Strength Center on Friday afternoon in 2023 —a fitting tribute to a strength coach who, regardless of the program, built machines.

And make no mistake, those machines won a lot of games across a lot of sports.

Paulsen, who came to UNM with Mike Shepard and hit his stride under Dennis Franchoine, helped lead the strength and conditioning program for a Lobo Football team that hit its peak under Rocky Long in the 2000s. Those teams were known for their toughness and brute strength, and the man behind that was Mark Paulsen, who helped every student-athlete, regardless of sport or gender, maximize their potential.

Paulsen, who was flanked by not just friends but also plenty of family, also served as the strength coach for the Lobo basketball program when the team hit its stride in the early 2010s, winning several conference titles, including a 30-5 season and a Top 10 national ranking in 2010.

Tony Booth was a part of the "Bakersfield Sound" movement in country music in the 1970s, and he boasts five top-30 albums and 10 top-50 country songs on the Country Music charts from 1970-77 as well as four American Country Music Awards, including 1971's Most Promising Male Vocalist

Shirley Hufstedle was at one time the only female on a federal Court of Appeals when she served the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in 1968, appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson. She served on the Court of Appeals for 11 years until President Jimony Carter appointed her as the first United States Secretary of Education. She was even featured on a "Supersisters" trading card set that celebrated 72 important women in the United States in 1979.

Luc Longley played 11 years in the NBA, the first Australian to play in the league. He was the starting center for the Chicago Bulls during the final three championships of their six in eight years, from 1996-98. He played alongside Michael Jordan, and was the starting center for Chicago's 72-10 season, at the time a record for wins in a season. Longley was originally drafted seventh overall by the Minnesota Timberwolves, and he also saw time later in his career with the Phoenix Suns and New York Knicks.

Penny Marshall gained fame on television as Laverne DeFazio on Laverne and Shirley, which ran for seven seasons and saw Marshall earn three Golden Globe nominations. She moved on to become an accomplished director. "Big", directed by Marshall and starring Tom Hanks, became the first film directed by a women to top the $100 million mark. She later would direct "A League of Their Own" (also starring Hanks along with Geena Davis, Rosie O'Donnell and Madonna among others), a movie about the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League. That movie in 2012 was selected for preservation by the U.S. National Film Registry by the Library of Congress.

Holly Holm, who attended UNM in the early 2000s, went 33-2-3 as a professional boxer from 2002-13 with 18 World Titles in three weight classes. Holm has since switched to Mixed Martial Arts, defeating Rhonda Rousey to become the UFC Bantamweight World Champion.

Now retired after a distinguished 37-year career in the Marine Corps, William L. "Spyder" Nyland was a four-star general and Assistant Commander of the Marine Corps from 2002-05. Nyland was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant after serving in the Naval ROTC Program at UNM. He flew 122 combat missions in the Vietnam War, and earned the Defense Distinguished Service Medal and Distinguished Service Medal Legion of Merit. After retirement from the military, Nyland served as Deputy Director for Defense Research and Development for the Florida Institute for Human and Machine Cognition. He also spent time as Chairman of Toys for Tots.

Jason Eck
Head Coach

Wisconsin, 1999
LaCrosse, Wisc.

Jason Eck

Jason Eck joined the Lobo Family in December of 2024 as head coach of the football program. He comes to the University of New Mexico with 26 years of experience at the FBS, FCS, and Division II levels, including three years as a head coach at the University of Idaho. He led the Idaho program to a national ranking and a FCS playoff berth in all three of his seasons there. Idaho increased its win total each season under Eck. In the 22 years before he arrived in Idaho, the Vandals totaled just two winning seasons.

Heading into 2024, Eck had to reload the Vandals after they lost over 80% of their offensive production to graduation or the transfer portal after the 2023 season. They reloaded in a big way, as Eck led Idaho to a 10-4 record and a second straight FCS Playoff quarterfinal appearance. The success came despite starting three quarterbacks throughout the season due to injuries.

After opening the season by putting a scare into then-No. 1 Oregon, losing just 24-14 in a game where Idaho trailed 17-14 late in the fourth quarter, Eck led the Vandals to a second straight Mountain West win, defeating Wyoming in Laramie 17-13. Three of Idaho's four losses on the season were to teams ranked #1 in the country at the time of the game.

In 2023, the Vandals improved to 9-4, again finishing 6-2 in the Big Sky, tying for second place. The Vandals played two FBS programs, falling to California

31-17 after taking a 17-0 lead and defeating Nevada 33-6 in Reno, allowing only two field goals as Idaho outgained the Wolf Pack 463-266. The Vandals went 4-2 against ranked opponents and advanced to the FCS Quarterfinals. Once again, the Vandals ranked in the Top 20 in a host of categories including passing efficiency (12th at 154.7), scoring offense (14th at 32.3), total defense (14th at 306.8), red zone offense (4th at 92.6%), net punting (11th at 40.1), punt returns (3rd at 18.4), kickoff returns (7th at 24.2), and time of possession (3rd at 33:48).

Two players, receiver Hayden Hatten and defensive back Marcus Harris, were both named All-Americans. For Hatten, it marked his second straight All-American nod.

In his first season as head coach in 2022, Eck led the Vandals to a 7-5 overall record and a 6-2 mark in the Big Sky Conference, finishing third. That season included wins over rival No. 3 Montana, a first for the program since 1999, and the team broke the 40-point mark five times. Two of the losses were to Washington State (24-17) and at Indiana (35-22). The team qualified for the postseason for the first time since playing in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in 2016, and for just the fourth time since 1995 when the program last played in the FCS Playoffs.

Eck's quarterback, Gevani McCoy, won the Jerry Rice Award, presented to the most outstanding freshman in the FCS, throwing for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns.

Idaho ranked in the Top 20 in the FCS in passing efficiency (5th at 168.1), scoring offense (13th at 35.9), fewest passing yards allowed (19th at 190.0), turnover margin (9th at +0.83), red zone offense (5th at 92.3%), punt returns (13th at 13.9), kickoff returns (13th at 24.1), and time of possession (2nd at 35:07).

Overall, in his three seasons with Idaho, Eck coached 16 First Team All-Big Sky players, 12 Second Team All-Big Sky players, four Third Team All-Big Sky players, and 16 Honorable Mention All-Big Sky players.

Before becoming Idaho's head coach, Eck spent six seasons with the South Dakota State Jackrabbits as offensive line coach and the final three as offensive coordinator. In 2019, he was named the American Football Coaches' Association FCS Assistant Coach of the Year.

At South Dakota State, he helped lead the Jackrabbits to four FCS Playoff semifinal appearances and a national championship game appearance in the spring 2021 season. In three years as the offensive coordinator at SDSU, Eck's teams averaged 32.5 points per game, including 37.5 in his final season in 2021. The Jackrabbits were eighth in scoring offense, seventh in team passing efficiency, and eighth in rushing offense behind the FCS's leading rusher, Pierre Strong.

In the 2021 spring season, freshman quarterback Mark Gronowski was the runner-up for the Jerry Rice Award as the FCS freshman of the year before being injured on the first series of the National Championship game. The Jackrabbits fell just 23-21 despite missing Gronowski.

The 2021 spring team showed off Eck's experience. The Jackrabbits were seventh in the FCS in rushing and fourth in the FCS for tackles for loss allowed, despite playing some of the most physical defenses in the country in the Missouri Valley Football Conference. Sophomore offensive tackle Garret Greenfield was a near-consensus All-America selection, and sophomore guard Mason McCormick also received All-America recognition.

During Eck's first season with the Jackrabbits in 2016, SDSU featured one of the most prolific offenses in the MVFC and the FCS, averaging 33.2 points and 437.5 yards of total offense per game. In league contests, SDSU ranked second out of 10 teams in allowing only 11 total sacks and ranking first in five different offensive categories.

Before his time at SDSU, Eck was the offensive line coach and run-game coordinator at Montana State in 2015. The Bobcats were 18th in the FCS for rushing offense and 23rd in the FCS for sacks allowed. MSU led FCS in yards per play during his one season in Bozeman.

He was the offensive coordinator for the record-setting offense at Minnesota State, Mankato, during back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference championships in 2013 and 2014. He served as the offensive line coach in 2013 and added offensive coordinator duties in 2014 as the Mavericks advanced to the NCAA Division II championship game. The 2014 season saw Mankato finish 14th in Division II in rushing offense.

Daniel Da Prato
Daniel Da Prato

Assoc. Head Coach/STC

ULM, 2003
Sacramento, Calif.

Daniel Da Prato is in his first season with the New Mexico Lobos, serving a vital role as the Associate Head Coach and Special Teams Coordinator.

Da Prato has been in the Division I coaching ranks for over 20 seasons, and he is considered one of the preeminent coaches for special teams. He additionally brings head coaching experience to the program for Coach Eck.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

TEXAS STATE (2023-24): Da Prato spent two seasons with Texas State as the Associate Head Coach and Special Teams Coordinator, where Texas State's special teams were transformed in his two seasons.

Texas State improved right away as the program led the entire country in total kick return yards (1,017) and was fifth in the nation in yards per kick return (26.08). The Bobcats were also tied with Auburn for the nation's best field goal percentage (a perfect 100 percent).

The Bobcats improved 105 spots in the national rankings in kick return average from 2022 to 2023, returning two kickoffs for touchdowns, a first for the program since 2013. Texas State had a total of seven kickoffs returned for 30+ yards during the season. The field goal accuracy was powered by Mason Shipley, who was a perfect 15-of-15 in field goals. The first-year starter set the program record for most field goals made in a season and was one of only two kickers in the country to make all his field goals (min. 10 attempts).

Ismail Mahdi was named a first team All-American as an all-purpose player – he led the nation in all-purpose yards in 2023 – while Shipley was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, which is given to the nation's top placekicker. Mahdi marked Da Prato's fifth All-American in his career, including in three straight seasons from 2021-23. Shipley was a Groza Award semifinalist, marking the third different school that Da Prato has coached a Groza semifinalist.

In his two years with Texas State, the Bobcats led the nation in field goal percentage (2023) and total kickoff return yards (2023). Additionally, Texas State finished second in kickoff return touchdowns (tied, 2023), third in total punt return yards (2024), fourth in punt return average (2024), blocked kicks (2024), and fifth in touchbacks (2024) and kickoff return average (2023).

USF (2020-22): Da Prato spent three seasons with the Bulls, spending the final month of his tenure as the interim head coach. He was the special teams coordinator all three seasons.

In three seasons at USF, Da Prato coached consensus All-American Brian Battie, who helped the Bulls rank No. 1 in the country in kickoff return touchdowns from 2021-22. Battie was named Third Team All-America by Phil Steele in 2022, and he was a consensus All-American in 2021. Battie and Jimmy Horn, Jr. combined for four kickoff return touchdowns over the two seasons to lift USF to the top of the country in that category.

2014	FCS Playoffs (First Round)

In the 2021 season, ESPN ranked the USF Special Teams unit as the ninth-most efficient group in the country. The Bulls tied an NCAA record with two 100-yard returns in the same game. Battie set a school record with a 33.9-yard kickoff return average while punt returner Xavier Weaver averaged 12.9 yards per return, which would have ranked sixth in the nation if he qualified with two more punt returns. The Bulls finished the season ranked among the top three in the American Athletic Conference in PAT percentage, field goal percentage, kickoff coverage, kickoff returns, and punt returns.

USF's kicker was Spencer Shrader, who was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, giving Da Prato his second career semifinalist.

Additionally, Da Prato was also named co-interim defensive coordinator with Ernie Sims for the final game of USF's 2021 season against UCF. USF's defense held the Knights to 17 points, 12 first downs, and 285 yards, well below their season average, in a close 17-13 loss in Orlando.

ARKANSAS (2019): Da Prato spent one season in the SEC with Arkansas, starting as a special teams quality control coach before being elevated to special teams coordinator towards the end of the season. The Razorbacks' special teams shone that year, ranking 10th in the nation in kickoff coverage (17.29 yards per return allowed) and 20th in punt return defense. At Arkansas, placekicker Connor Limpert was named a Lou Groza Award semifinalist, giving Da Prato his first semifinalist.

COLORADO (2016-18): Da Prato spent three seasons in Boulder as director of quality control/offense. Da Prato also served as a replacement coach on the recruiting trail in December 2016 and January 2017, and again in January 2018. For the Buffaloes, he assisted the offensive coaching staff in its planning and implementation of the weekly practice and game plans. He was also heavily involved in game planning for the special teams units, with a specific area of concentration on punt block and kickoff return. The Buffaloes under Da Prato registered their first blocked punt in eight seasons in 2017, and they returned their first punt for a touchdown in 11 years in 2016.

MONTANA STATE (2013-15): Da Prato spent three seasons at Montana State as Special Teams Coordinator and Tight Ends coach. In those three years, Da Prato coached a pair of All-Americans at tight end in Beau Sandland, who was named Second Team AP FCS All-American in 2015, and Shawn Johnson, who was named Third Team All-American by The Sports Network in 2013. Johnson returned two kickoffs for touchdowns and averaged 31.0 yards on 22 kick returns (fourth in the nation). He also had a punt return for a touchdown and ranked fifth in the country with 13.9 yards per punt return.

SACRAMENTO STATE (2007-12): Da Prato spent six seasons with his hometown team, the Sacramento State Hornets, serving as wide receivers coach for all six seasons and also as special teams coordinator for the final three seasons. In 2008, he guided wide receiver Tony Washington to third-team All-America honors by The Sports Network. Washington, who only played two seasons at Sacramento State, was one of just 11 players in school history to catch over 100 passes in their career. He averaged 73.6 receiving yards per game, ranking third in Hornet history, and set a program season record with 83 receptions in 2008, while his 1,279 receiving yards ranked as the second-most ever by a Hornet.

ULM (2004-06): Da Prato got his collegiate coaching career started at his alma mater, ULM, serving as a graduate assistant for the offense for two seasons before being named Director of Operations and Recruiting Coordinator.

PLAYING CAREER – NEW MEXICO HIGHLANDS (2000), CHABOT JC (2001), ULM (2002-03): As a player, he began his playing career in Las Vegas, Nevada, at New Mexico Highlands, where he was the starting quarterback and his father was the head coach. He then attended Chabot Junior College, where he earned honorable mention All-Conference honors. He finished his career as a quarterback at ULM, earning Academic All-Conference honors.

Luke Schleusner

North Dakota, 2001
Menomonie, Wisc.

Luke Schleusner joined the Lobo Football program in December 2024 and serves as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after a three-year stint at Idaho.

Over his 21-year coaching career, Schleusner has developed a reputation for his innovative offensive schemes and adaptability.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

IDAHO (2022-24): Schleusner spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Idaho, running an offense that made the FCS playoffs in all three seasons.

In 2024, the Vandals, despite losing their starting quarterback in the season opener, ranked 19th nationally in the FCS in passing efficiency at 149.6 and 21st in total first downs with 263, showcasing a ball-control offense that wore down their opponents. Jordan Dwyer earned FCS All-America honors after a season with 78 catches and 1,192 yards. Schleusner's offense rushed for 2,238 yards and featured three running backs with over 500 yards.

His previous offenses both ranked in the top 25 in terms of total offense and in the top 12 in team passing efficiency, led by the 2022 team, which was fifth in the FBS at 168.07 yards per game. That 2022 season was also second nationally in time of possession, holding the ball for over 35 minutes per game, as Idaho returned to not just a winning record but also the FCS playoffs. In the 2023 season, the Vandals ranked third in time of possession. Notably, quarterback Gevani McCoy threw for over 3,000 yards, Hayden Hatten had 1,231 yards receiving, and Hayden Hatten rushed for 1,155 yards.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE (2014-21): Schleusner spent eight seasons with the South Dakota State Jackrabbits, where he spent six seasons coaching tight ends before moving to passing game coordinator and receivers coach for his final two.

Schleusner coached Super Bowl Champion Dallas Goedert as well as Cam Jones to multiple All-America honors. Goedert was a back-to-back All-American in 2016 and 2017. In 2016, he recorded a school-record 92 receptions, accounting for 1,293 yards and 11 touchdowns en route to becoming a unanimous All-America selection. He repeated as a unanimous All-American in 2017 after posting his second consecutive 1,000-yard season, recording team highs of 72 receptions and 1,111 receiving yards. The Philadelphia Eagles selected Goedert in the second round of the NFL Draft.

He also coached NFL Draft choice Tucker Kraft, a third-round pick of the Green Bay Packers. Kraft caught 90 passes as a redshirt freshman and 65 as a sophomore, earning FCS All-America honors.

Schleusner also coached All-MVFC tight ends Blake Kunz and Kallan Hart. After moving to receivers, he coached twin receivers Jaxon and Jadon Janke, with Jaxon earning All-MVFC honors and Jadon ranking among the national leaders in yards per reception.

Schleusner also has played an instrumental role in coaching the Jackrabbits' special teams units. Redshirt freshman Cade Johnson excelled on special teams during the 2017 campaign, establishing a single-season school record with 839 kickoff return yards. Johnson became the first Jackrabbit player since 1964 to return two kickoffs for touchdowns and was later honored on a pair of freshman All-America squads.

SDSU also ranked fifth in the FCS ranks with six blocked kicks in 2017 and was third with eight blocked kicks in 2018.

NORTH DAKOTA (2011-13): Schleusner spent three years at North Dakota, eventually serving as Offensive Coordinator at UND, his alma mater. He also coached tight ends, fullbacks, and receivers, serving as the passing game coordinator for a season. He helped the then Fighting Sioux to a Great West Football Conference title in 2011 and 2012. In those years, UND's offense set school records for passing yards and touchdowns.

At UND, he coached future Pro Bowl receiver Kenny Golladay, who led the NFL in touchdown receptions in 2019, recording 11 touchdowns for the Detroit Lions. Golladay's sophomore season under Schleusner was his breakout campaign with 69 catches for 884 yards and eight touchdowns. He was eventually drafted in the third round by Detroit in 2017.

MINNESOTA STATE MANKATO (2005-10): At Minnesota State Mankato, Schleusner started his full-time coaching career, spending six years with the Mavericks. He served as Special Teams Coordinator and Recruiting Coordinator for four years, concluding his tenure with two seasons as Passing Game Coordinator and Wide Receivers coach. Minnesota State Mankato made a huge turnaround during his time there, eventually making the Division II playoffs in 2008 and 2009, the first two playoff appearances for the Mavericks in 15 years. While there, Schleusner coached Adam Thielen, who is a two-time NFL All-Pro with over 10 seasons in the NFL.

WESTERN ILLINOIS (2002-04): Schleusner's career began with a three-year stint at Western Illinois as a graduate assistant, starting as a tight ends coach for two years before adding the title of Special Teams Coordinator for 2004. It was with Western Illinois that he got his first taste of the postseason with a pair of postseason FCS playoff berths.

PLAYING CAREER - NORTH DAKOTA (1998-2001): As a player, Schleusner was an All-North Central Conference performer for North Dakota in 2001 as a wide receiver, helping the then Fighting Sioux to the 2001 Division II National Championship. As a senior, he caught 57 passes, including a 58-yard catch on fourth-and-four with under a minute to go to set up the game-winning touchdown in a 17-14 win over Grand Valley State in the National Championship game. All told, in 2001, he recorded 762 yards and eight touchdowns, and he was twice an All-NCC Academic selection.

Spence Nowinsky

Minnesota State, 1995
Hatley, Wisc.

Spence Nowinsky joined the Lobo Football program in January 2025 and serves as the defensive coordinator for UNM. He comes to New Mexico after serving as the defensive coordinator at Memphis.

Nowinsky has been a Division I defensive coordinator every year since 2009. In a career that began in coaching at Wisconsin in 1999, Nowinsky has developed a reputation for teams that display a hard-nosed style, featuring plenty of game-changing ability.

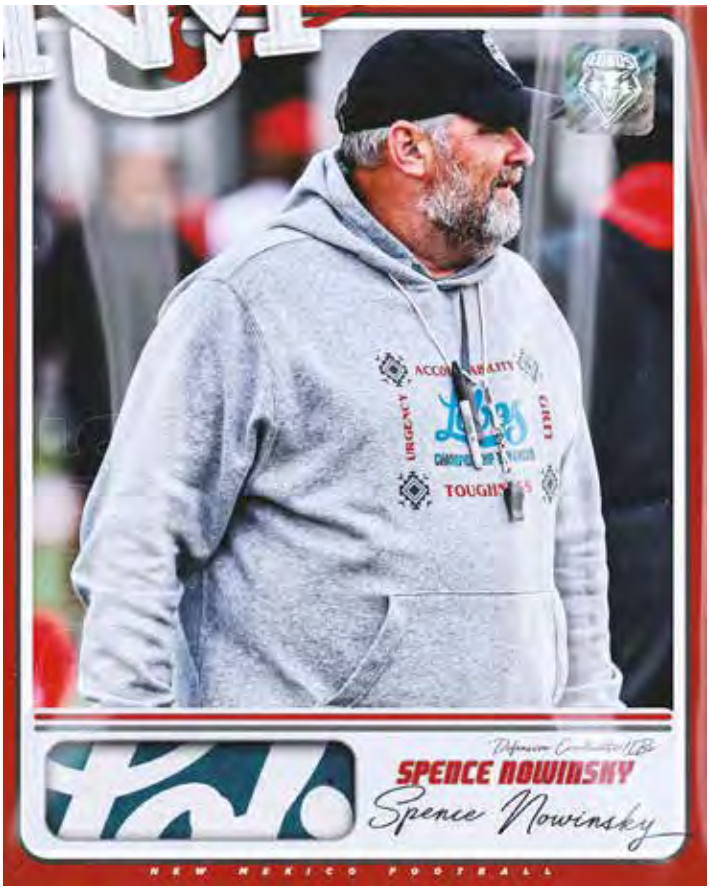
PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

MEMPHIS (2024): Nowinsky spent the 2024 season as the Co-Defensive Coordinator and Defensive Line Coach for the University of Memphis. The Tigers went 11-2 on the season, and Memphis was ranked No. 24 in the final coaches' poll.

Nowinsky helped transform Memphis' defense in his lone season with the Tigers, as their rushing defense moved from 79th the year before 18th. Overall, the defense went from being ranked 95th in 2023 to 52nd.

Defensive end William Whitlow was named AAC First Team All-Conference, and Memphis capped off the season with a victory over West Virginia in the Scooter's Frisco Bowl in Frisco, Texas.

OHIO (2022-23): Nowinsky spent two seasons with the Ohio Bobcats as the defensive coordinator and defensive ends coach. He was a nominee for the Broyles Award for Assistant Coach of the Year. Also, he was named Defensive Coordinator of the Year for the Group of Five.



The 2023 season was a record-breaking one for the Ohio Bobcats' defense and Nowinsky. In his second year at the helm, Nowinsky's defense finished No. 4 in the nation, No. 1 among the Group of Five, and No. 1 in the Mid-American Conference.

Additionally, the Bobcats finished the regular season in the top 10 for every defensive category during the 2023 season. Notably, the defense forced five turnovers during Ohio's 41-21 victory over Georgia Southern in the 2023 Myrtle Beach Bowl, setting a program record for turnovers forced in a bowl game.

Four defensive Bobcats were named to the All-MAC team, with Bryce Houston and Keye Thompson receiving first-team accolades, while Vonnie Watkins and Rayyan Buell were honored with third-team distinctions.

n 2022, Nowinsky's defense played a crucial role in the Bobcats' winning the MAC's East Division and their appearance in the MAC Championship game. Over his first year, Nowinsky's defense led the league in fourth-down percentage and was ranked second in turnovers forced in the MAC.

The Bobcats' defense improved from eight takeaways to 20 in his first season. Additionally, the defense increased the team's sack total from 17 to 30, and the defense also improved from 56 TFLs to 74. Defensive end Jack McCrory earned All-MAC Third Team honors. The squad ended the season with an overtime victory over Wyoming in the 2022 Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl.

MIAMI (OH) (2018-21): Nowinsky was the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he had a successful four-year run with the RedHawks.

In his final season with Miami, the RedHawks led the MAC in scoring defense, rushing defense, and sacks. That defense was a key as Miami earned its first bowl victory in over a decade, using a dominant defensive performance to defeat North Texas in the inaugural Frisco Bowl. In that game, the defense limited the Mean Green to 317 yards of total offense, 89 yards rushing, 2.8 yards per carry, and 14 points. The squad forced two early turnovers in the first half that keyed the 27-14 win.

In 2021, Nowinsky coached Co-MAC Defensive Player of the Year and MAC Linebacker of the Year Ivan Pace, who was named a Second Team All-American by the Action Network, as well as a First-Team All-MAC selection. Nowinsky also coached Matt Salopek, who earned All-MAC Second Team accolades. In total, Nowinsky had seven All-MAC Defense student-athletes during the 2021 season.

Under Nowinsky, the RedHawks' defense finished in the top half of almost every statistical category in 2018, his first season with the program. Miami finished fourth in scoring defense (25.5), third in rush defense (159.7), and fifth in total defense (368.2), and sacks (29). A year later, in 2019, the defense improved further, finishing second in scoring (22.5), third in total defense (352.9), and first in pass defense (175.9). In 2018, Brad Koenig earned First-Team All-MAC at linebacker, and in 2019, Myles Reid recorded Third-Team All-MAC honors as well.

ILLINOIS STATE (2009-17): Nowinsky spent nine seasons with the Illinois State Redbirds, including four as the Redbirds' defensive coordinator. He was also the team's assistant head coach and mentored the defensive line. After taking the helm of the ISU defense, the Redbirds' defense improved statistically every year. In 2014, the defense allowed an average of 345.5 yards per game. During the 2015 season, the Redbirds' defense ranked 16th nationally, allowing 306.7 yards per game. In 2017, ISU ranked 13th in sacks (33), 14th in rushing allowed (108.4), and 23rd in points (19.4).

In four years, ISU's defense recorded 131 sacks, which helped the Redbirds force 70 turnovers during that span. Illinois State was also strong on third downs, allowing a conversion rate of just 34 percent over that timeframe. Under Nowinsky, six players earned first-team all-conference honors, and another was a two-time First-Team All-American (2012-13).

EMPORIA STATE (2007-08): Nowinsky spent two years as the associate head coach and defensive line coach at NCAA Division II member Emporia State

MINNESOTA STATE (2004-06): Nowinsky spent three seasons at his alma mater, Minnesota State, where he coached the defensive line during the 2004 and 2006 seasons. In 2005, Nowinsky coached the Mavericks' offensive line.

IDAHO (2003): Nowinsky's first full-time coaching position came at the University of Idaho when Idaho was a member of the Sun Belt Conference. He coached the defensive line for the Vandals.

WISCONSIN (1999-2003): He began his collegiate coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Wisconsin from 1999-2002, where he worked with Coach Jason Eck. The Badgers won the 2000 Rose Bowl with a 17-9 victory over Stanford. Nowinsky came to Wisconsin after serving as an assistant coach at Wittenberg-Birnamwood (Wis.) High School from 1997-99 and as an assistant at Lake Crystal-Welcome Memorial (Minn.) High School from 1995-97.

PLAYING CAREER – MINNESOTA STATE (1991-94): As a player, Nowinsky played defensive line from 1991-94 at Minnesota State.

Stanley Franks, Jr. is in his first season with the New Mexico Lobos, serving as Defensive Passing Game Coordinator and Defensive Backs Coach. He previously served on Coach Eck's staff at Idaho.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

IDAHO (2022-24): Franks spent three years on Coach Jason Eck's staff at Idaho as cornerbacks coach.

His 2024 squad allowed just over 200 yards a game passing as Idaho ranked eighth nationally in fourth down conversion, and his corner Andrew Marshall was named First Team All-Big Sky.

In 2023, Idaho's defense limited opponents to just 182.2 yards passing, as the team, including 21 takeaways with Marcus Harris, earned First Team All-Big Sky honors. The 182.2 passing yards allowed marked the second straight season that the Vandals allowed fewer than 200 yards per game passing, as the squad allowed just 190.0 yards per game in 2022.

That 2022 yardage was nearly 70 yards per game better than the previous season before his arrival. The Vandals also ranked fifth in the FCS with 16 interceptions. In 2022, Marcus Harris was Second Team All-Big Sky after scoring two defensive touchdowns and defending 14 passes on the season, which at the time was the third-most in Idaho history.

2021	Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl
2018	CFL Playoffs (Division Semifinals)

WASHINGTON STATE (2020-21): Franks spent two seasons with the Cougars of Washington State as a defensive quality control coach. Washington State's 2021 season saw the Cougars go 7-6 and earn a spot in the Tony The Tiger Sun Bowl. The Cougars ranked seventh nationally in turnover margin and fifth in total takeaways with 29 (14 fumble recoveries and 15 interceptions). Washington State also ranked 10th nationally in red zone defense and 20th in passing efficiency defense.

CABRILLO COLLEGE (2019): Spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Cabrillo, where the Seahawks went 8-3. Cabrillo, in his lone season, scored five defensive touchdowns, picked off 21 passes, and allowed just 26 red zone scores in 38 opponent attempts. His defense also recorded 47 sacks while allowing opponents to complete just 46.4% of their passes.

BRITISH COLUMBIA (CFL) (2017-18): Franks spent two years in the Canadian Football League as an assistant defensive backs and quality control coach. In his two seasons, the Lions ranked either first or second in passes broken up or interceptions.

IDAHO STATE (2013-16): Franks spent four seasons in Pocatello, Idaho, as the defensive back coach, where he oversaw the corners and safeties while also recruiting Southern California. While there, the Bengals had their best season in 13 years with an 8-4 season and a tie for second place at 6-2 in the Big Sky, led by Third Team All-Big Sky pick Taison Manu.

SPOKANE SHOCK (AF2) (2012): Franks started his professional coaching career with a season as defensive backs and defensive coordinator for the Spokane Shock of the Arena Football League 2.

PLAYING CAREER – LONG BEACH COLLEGE (2004-05); IDAHO (2006-07); SAN DIEGO CHARGERS (NFL, 2008); SPOKANE SHOCK (AF2, 2009); B.C. LIONS (CFL, 2009-11): After a two-year stint at Long Beach College, he spent two seasons at Idaho, where he made his mark. In 2006, he led the FBS with nine interceptions, earning First Team All-Western Athletic Conference and Honorable Mention All-America honors from Sports Illustrated. His season highlight in 2006 was a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown against Utah State, the fourth-longest in Idaho history, and it was part of a school record 220 yards of interception returns.

After Idaho, he signed a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers before eventually spending three seasons in the CFL with the B.C. Lions.

He and his wife Tara-Lea Rowsell have a son, Stanley Franks III.

Cody Booth

Cody Booth is in his first season with the New Mexico Lobos, serving as Offensive Line Coach. He previously served on Coach Eck's staff at Idaho and has quickly made a name for himself in the coaching circles for his coaching technique and his work with NFL tight end Trey McBride.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

IDAHO (2022-24): Booth spent three years on Coach Jason Eck's staff at Idaho as coach of the offensive line.

With Booth's offensive line leading the way, Idaho's total offense numbers increased in his first season, moving up over 70 yards.

The 2024 squad averaged 159.9 yards on the ground, and Idaho averaged 27.9 points per game. Two of his charges earned All-Big Sky honors, with Ayden Knapik making the first team and Nate Azzopardi earning honorable mention honors.

Cody Booth Profile

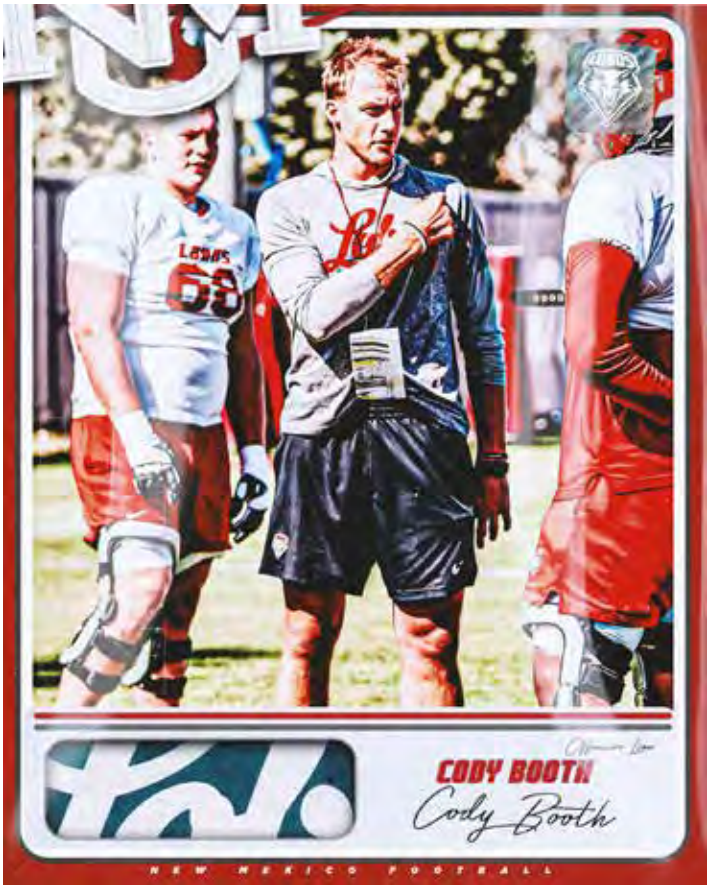
Born: April 22, 1991
Hometown: Lancaster, Pa.
Alma Mater: Temple, 2014 (B.A., Sport and Exercise Science)
Playing Experience: Temple (2010-13); Chicago Bears (NFL, 2014); Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-15); Washington Redskins (2016)
Family: Engaged to Malia Jaynes

Coaching Experience:

2025	New Mexico (Offensive Line)
2022-24	Idaho (Offensive Line)
2020-21	Colorado State (Tight Ends)
2019	Boston College (Graduate Assistant/Offense)
2017-18	Temple (Graduate Assistant/Offense)

Postseason Coached (corresponding to the season, not the actual year of game):

2024	FCS Playoffs (Quarterfinals)
2023	FCS Playoffs (Quarterfinals)
2022	FCS Playoffs (First Round)
2018	Gasparilla Bowl
2017	Independence Bowl



His 2023 offensive line paved the way for a record-breaking offense that saw five players earn All-Mountain West honors, including Knapik, who made the honorable mention squad.

In his first season in 2022, three linemen were honored by the Big Sky, with Logan Floyd earning Third-Team accolades and both Knapik and Beau St. John being named honorable mention. The Vandals averaged 170.7 yards on the ground and 432.7 overall, scoring 45.9 points per game. The Vandals were deadly in close, ranking fifth in red zone offense.

COLORADO STATE (2020-21): Booth served as the tight ends coach with Colorado State, where he worked with Trey McBride, who was named a unanimous All-American and was the winner of the 2021 Mackey Award as the nation's best tight end.

In 2020, McBride was First Team All-Mountain West, leading Colorado State in receptions, yards, and touchdown catches, but his 2021 was one for the books. In his award-winning season, McBride flourished with Booth as his coach, catching 90 passes for 1,121 yards, setting a Mountain West record for yards by a tight end, and it was the fifth-most yards by a tight end in FBS history. He also had six 100-yard receiving games on the season.

It wasn't just McBride as Booth's tight end, Gary Williams, finished fourth on the team in receptions as well.

BOSTON COLLEGE (2019): Spent one season on Chestnut Hill as an offensive graduate assistant, helping with the offensive line coaching Zion Johnson to All-ACC honors.

TEMPLE (2017-18): Booth got his professional coaching career started as a graduate assistant with the offense at Temple University. The Owls qualified for a pair of bowl games during his tenure, and he coached Remington Award finalist Matt Hennessy, who went on to earn Third Team All-America honors in 2019. The Atlanta Falcons selected him in the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft.

PLAYING CAREER – TEMPLE (2010-13); CHICAGO BEARS (NFL, 2014); JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (NFL, 2014-15); WASHINGTON REDSKINS (2016). Played four years at Temple, the first three as a tight end before moving to tackle. After just one season there, he forged out a three-year NFL career with Chicago, Jacksonville, and Washington before returning to Temple as a graduate assistant.

Jared Elliott
Tight Ends
Miami (OH), 2008
Franklin, Tenn.

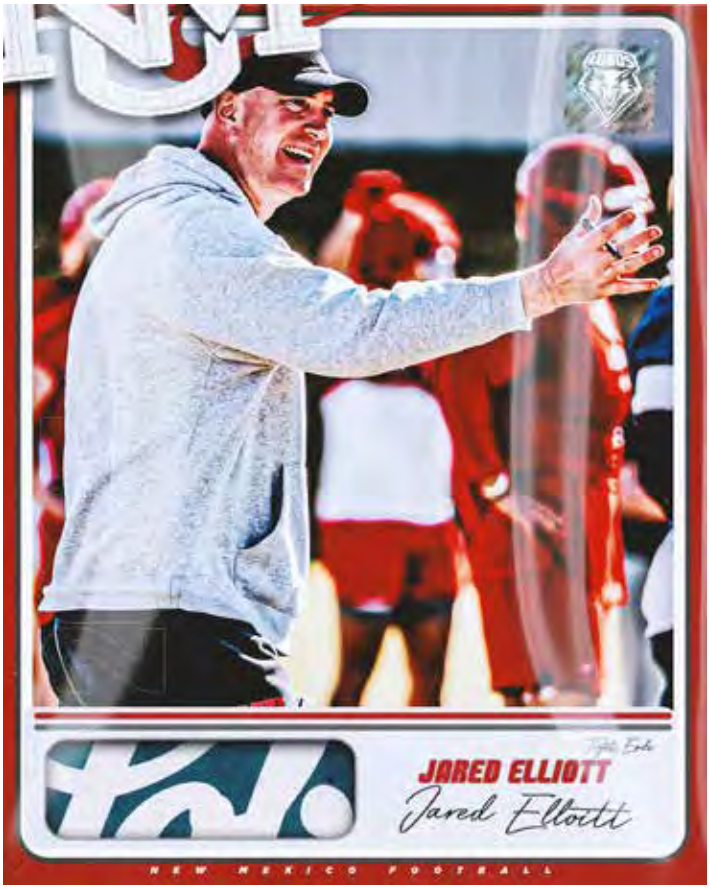
Jared Elliott

Jared Elliott joined the Lobo family in January of 2025, and he serves as the tight ends coach. Elliott brings with him experience as both a head coach and an offensive coordinator.

PREVIOUS COACHING STOPS

BALL STATE (2022-24): Elliott spent three years with Ball State as tight ends coach, and he went from Offensive Passing Game Coordinator in 2022 to Co-Offensive Coordinator in 2023 and finally Offensive Coordinator in 2024.

Elliott coached Tanner Koziol, who was named Third Team All-MAC at tight end in 2023 and Second Team All-MAC in 2024. Koziol was third on the team in receptions in 2023, and he led the squad with three touchdown receptions. However, in 2024, Koziol put up incredible numbers, recording 94 receptions for 839 yards and eight touchdowns, which led the team in all three categories.



Koziol was a Freshman All-American after his 2022 season.

Overall, in 2024 as the offensive coordinator, the Cardinals averaged nearly 26 points per game, threw for 245 yards per game, and amassed 4,174 total yards and 38 touchdowns with rookie quarterback Kadin Semonza being named MAC Freshman of the Year. All told, six Cardinals earned a spot on the All-MAC teams, including three offensive linemen.

His 2023 squad featured Marquez Cooper at running back, who rushed for 1.043 yards in his one season with Ball State.

WESTERN ILLINOIS (2016-21): Elliott was with the Leathernecks for six years, the final four seasons as head coach, leading Western Illinois through the COVID-19 crisis.

In his six seasons with the Leathernecks, the program garnered numerous accolades, including 16 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections, 13 honorable mention choices, and six FCS All-Americans. Five of his players reached the professional ranks, including three who made it to the NFL: Lance Lenoir (Buffalo Bills), LaCale London (Chicago Bears), and Khalen Saunders (Kansas City Chiefs). Elliott also mentored two players who went on to play in the CFL: Jaelon Acklin (Hamilton Tiger-Cats) and Sean McGuire (Winnipeg Blue Bombers).

In the 2021 season, Western Illinois set program records for passing yards per game (301.0) and completions (315). Under his charge, Western Illinois quarter-

Geoff Zonn
Assoc. Athletic Trainer

Lynchburg College, 2011
Wexford, Pa.

Geoff Zonn joined the Lobo Family in April 2023, and he serves as the Associate Athletic Trainer, overseeing the athletic training and rehab program for the Lobo Football program. He came to UNM from a four-year stint at Washington State as an assistant athletic trainer within the athletic medicine department, working with football.

With UNM, Zonn will oversee the athletic training program for the 110-member Lobo Football squad. Aside from injury prevention, he oversees all rehabilitation efforts and implements the latest sports medicine programs in order for the Lobos to achieve at a high level.

Zonn is no stranger to the Mountain West, having served for five years at UNLV as an assistant athletic trainer, working primarily with football, as well as baseball and softball.

Zonn earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training in 2011 from Lynchburg College and later completed his master's degree in sports management and instructional leadership from Robert Morris University. He served as a graduate assistant trainer at Robert Morris for two years, working with football and women's basketball.

Geoffrey is currently a member of the National Athletic Training Association and the College Athletic Trainers Society.

Bob Waller
Assoc. A.D./Health & Perf.

Chico State, 1995
Los Angeles, Calif.

Bob Waller rejoined The University of New Mexico as the head athletic trainer in 2013, overseeing the entire athletic training department at UNM. He served as the lead athletic trainer for the football program until the 2021 season. He currently serves as Associate Athletic Director for Health and Performance, overseeing the entire Athletic Training program, as well as the entire medical staff and athletic performance. He knows UNM well, as this is his second tour of duty with the program, having served as the associate athletic trainer from 2003 to 2009 under former boss Dave Binder, whom he replaced in 2013.

Waller came to UNM from fellow Mountain West rival Wyoming, where he served as the athletic trainer for the Cowboy Football team and oversaw the athletic training unit. Waller served in that capacity from 2009 to 13.

In addition to serving as the associate athletic trainer at New Mexico from 2003 to 2009, Waller spent four summers, from 2002 to 2005, working in NFL Europe. He was an assistant athletic trainer for the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 2002.

The Barcelona Dragons hired Waller as head trainer during the summer of 2003. In the summer of 2004, Waller served as the head athletic trainer for the Scottish Claymores, and in his final year in NFL Europe, he was the head trainer for the Hamburg Sea Devils.

He has served internships with ESPN's X Games and the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL. Waller has also worked with the Justin Sports Medicine Team at rodeo events since 1999.

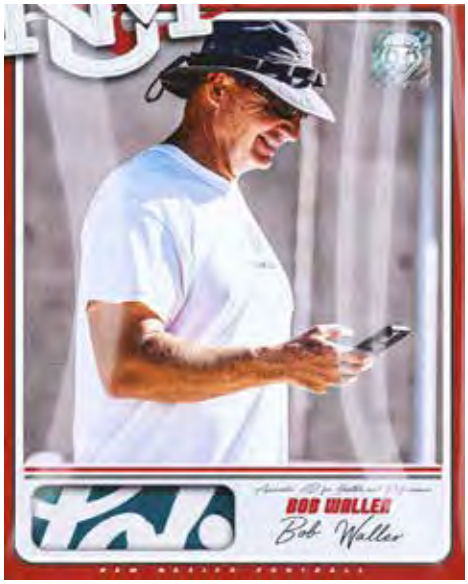
Waller holds a certification from the National Academy of Sports Medicine as a corrective exercise specialist. He has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Board of Certification and has completed his American Heart Association Basic Life Support Certification.

Waller was an accredited clinical instructor at The University of New Mexico, teaching, among other things, therapeutic modality, therapeutic rehabilitation exercises, and athletic training mock/muscle testing.

A former college baseball player at California State University, Chico, Waller earned his bachelor's degree in exercise physiology from Chico State in 1995. He then completed a second bachelor's degree in athletic training from the University of New Mexico in 2001 and received his master's degree in sports administration from UNM in 2004.

After graduating from Chico State in 1995, Waller pursued his studies at the University of New Mexico. Before attending the University of New Mexico, Waller worked as a research assistant at the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopaedic clinic in Los Angeles from 1995 to 1998.

Waller and his wife, Addie, have three children — a daughter, Harlee, and twins, Ashtyn and Trace.



John Waters
Director of Scouting
Arizona State, 2022
Phoenix, Ariz.

John Waters joined the University of New Mexico football staff in December 2024, serving as the Director of Scouting. In this role, he oversees all aspects of player evaluation, film analysis, and recruiting strategy to help identify and acquire top talent for the Lobos. He also collaborates with the General Manager on organizing recruiting events and roster construction.

Before arriving in Albuquerque, Waters served as a Recruiting Quality Control staffer at the University of Idaho for two seasons from 2023-24, where he managed the recruiting database, evaluated film, coordinated on-campus visits, and assisted in prospect communication. Before Idaho, he spent the 2022-23 season at Butler University as a Defensive Quality Control coach. At Butler, Waters was instrumental in breaking down game and practice film, generating scouting reports, and aiding with practice management.

A Phoenix, Arizona native, Waters earned his bachelor's degree in Sports Business from Arizona State University in 2022, graduating Summa Cum Laude. Before his time at ASU, he played a season of college football at the University of Redlands in 2018.

Waters resides in Albuquerque with his fiancée, Lauren.

Adam Behrends
Offensive Analyst
Minnesota State, 2010
Bettendorf, Iowa

Adam Behrends joined the Lobo Football family in February 2024 as an Offensive Analyst. He works with the quarterback and receiver groups.

Behrends joins the Lobos staff after serving as the head coach of Staples High School in Westport, Connecticut, from 2019 to 24. Behrends led the program to multiple State playoff appearances, culminating in a 2023 LL State Championship title and a No. 1 ranking in 2023. The state title was the first in 18 years (since 2005) and the first FCIAC Championship since 2012.

Behrends was voted the 2023 New Haven Register Coach of the Year, and the team won the 2023 Walter Camp Joseph S. Kelly Team of the Year Award, marking the first time in school history that it received such an honor.

Behrends was also successful in developing his players, with three quarterbacks and five receivers setting school records for four consecutive years. His 2023 Quarterback earned MaxPreps and New Haven Register CT Player of the Year while setting school records for passing yards, career yards per game, and touchdowns in a season. He also had five student-athletes accepted and enrolled at West Point, including two Ivy League recruits, and had 22 Division I recruits during his tenure. Additionally, he earned Walker Camp Coach of the Year and New Haven Register Coach of the Year.

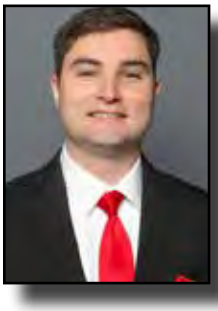
Before joining Staples, Behrends coached at IMG Academy for nine years, where he helped launch the IMG Football program and served as an assistant coach for the IMG National Varsity team, which compiled a combined 53-4 record from 2013 to 2018. The program finished in the top five of the MaxPreps and USA TODAY national rankings each of his last four years and developed more than 140 student-athletes who went on to play Division I football.

In addition to coaching various positions on the IMG National team staff, Behrends was recognized as one of the top quarterback coaches in the nation, leading the IMG Academy Pre-Combine/Draft Training program and guiding and developing dozens of NCAA prospects, NCAA starters, and NFL players.

Among them were former Michigan quarterback Shea Patterson, Super Bowl champion Russell Wilson, and NFL veterans Kirk Cousins, Josh Dobbs, Ryan Tannehill, and Teddy Bridgewater. In addition to working with quarterbacks, he also worked with several position groups during NFL Combine Training, including wide receivers, running backs, linebackers, and defensive backs.

Behrends played as a defensive back at Minnesota State-Mankato after transferring from Ellsworth Community College, where he was an all-region Defensive Back in 2006.

He is originally from Bettendorf, Iowa, and graduated from Bettendorf High School, earning all-conference honors as a defensive back in 2003.



Luke Nardo
Defensive Analyst
Ohio, 2020
Shadyside, Ohio

Luke Nardo joined the Lobo Family in January 2025 and serves as Defensive Analyst, where he will coach the Star Position for the Lobos. Before UNM, Nardo spent two seasons at West Virginia University.

At WVU, he was the Assistant Linebackers Coach. During his time in Morgantown, they appeared in a pair of bowl games, including a win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl.

Before his time in Morgantown, Nardo served as a graduate assistant at Ohio University, where he worked with the safeties under current UNM Defensive Coordinator Spence Nowinsky. During the 2022 season, the Bobcats won 10 games and were selected to participate in the Barstool Arizona Bowl.

Nardo began his career as a graduate assistant at the University of Nebraska at Kearney, following his role as a student coach at Ohio University.

A native of Shadyside, Ohio, Nardo graduated from Shadyside High School and then attended Ohio University, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in AYA Social Studies.

Both Luke's brothers, Matt and Bryan, coach in college football, and their father, Perry, also coached football at the high school level.

Luke's wife, Mikayla, will be joining him in Albuquerque.

Steven Koch
Special Teams Analyst
Dickinson State, 2018
Buffalo, S.D.

Steven Koch joined the Lobo family in January 2025 and serves as a special teams analyst. He previously served in a similar position at Texas State for two seasons, working with current Lobo special teams coach Daniel DaPrato. He was promoted in 2024 to Assistant Special Teams coach.

In his two seasons with Texas State. In 2024, the Bobcats finished third nationally in total punt return yards, fourth nationally in punt return average, and fifth nationally in touchbacks. He coached returner Ismail Mahdi, who was second in the Sun Belt in all-purpose yardage a year after leading the league in that same category, earning All-America honors.

Also in 2024, punt returner Beau Sparks dominated the Sun Belt and Texas State record books, setting marks for the highest single-game punt return average, most return yards in a game, and single-game punt return yards, as he achieved a pair of punt return touchdowns in the same game.

In his first season with the Bobcats in 2023. Texas State led the entire country in total kick return yards with 1,017 and was fifth in the nation in yards per kick return at 26.1 yards. The Bobcats tied with Auburn for the nation's best field goal percentage, as Texas State didn't miss a kick during the year.

The Bobcats, who improved 105 spots in the national rankings in kick return average from 2022 to 2023, returned two kickoffs for touchdowns, which was a first for the program since 2013. Texas State had a total of seven kickoffs returned for 30+ yards during the season.

Kicker Mason Shipley was a perfect 15-of-15 in field goals. The first-year starter set the program record for most field goals made in a season and was one of only two kickers in the country to make all his field goals (min. 10 attempts).

Shipley was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, given to the nation's top placekicker. Koch has coached two All-Americans in his career (Shipley and Mahdi), and he coached the nation's leader in all-purpose yards in 2023 and 2024.

Before joining the Bobcats, Koch served as the Special Teams Analyst at South Florida for the 2022 season, working alongside Da Prato as well. At USF, Koch helped coordinate all special teams units and assisted in the recruitment process of specialists. When Daniel Da Prato was named Interim Head Coach, Koch moved to Interim Special Teams Coordinator/Defensive Assistant. Koch helped mentor Brian Battie, who was the nation's leader in all-purpose yards and an All-American at returner, a Lou Groza Award Semifinalist, and a current member of the Kansas City Chiefs, Spencer Shrader. In 2022, USF led the country in kick return yards.

Koch was the Special Teams Coordinator/Tight Ends and Fullbacks coach at Dickinson State from 2020-2022, which was his second stint as a coach at his alma mater. In addition to overseeing all special teams units, he helped lead Dickinson State to an undefeated 2020 season and back-to-back conference championships in 2020 and 2021. He mentored all-conference selections Isaiah Kludt (punt returner), Jeremiah Paine (punter), Jace Johnson (kicker), and Galen Brantley (tight end).

Before his second coaching stint at Dickinson State, Koch was the Outside Linebackers coach at Chadron State College (NE) for the 2019 season. He worked closely with the defensive coordinator on game planning, serving as a special teams assistant. In the Spring of 2019, he served a defensive internship at Colorado.

In 2018, Koch served as Outside Linebackers Coach for his first stint with Dickinson State. At Dickinson, he helped the team win a conference title in 2018 and reach the second round of the NAIA National Playoffs.

As a collegiate player, Koch played four seasons at Dickinson State (2014-17) as an outside linebacker. He was a three-time conference champion and helped lead the team to top-15 national finishes in three seasons. He played in 44 career games.

Koch earned a bachelor's degree in University Studies from Dickinson State in 2018 and a Master's in Organizational Management from Chadron State in 2021.

He is married to the former Nicole Thramer.

Mercogliano had spent the previous four years as the Director of Sports Information at Augusta State University, where he helped publicize the Jaguars in eight NCAA national tournament appearances. At ASU, Mercogliano was responsible for the publicity of 11 sports, including 10 NCAA Division II teams and the Division I men's golf team, which made three national tournament appearances during his tenure.

He also served as the first full-time SID at Belmont Abbey College, where he also held the dual title of Carolinas Conference Media Relations Director. While there, he also coached South Point High School's soccer team to a two-year record of 30-7-3. In 1993, he was named "Region X Coach of the Year" and was a runner-up for North Carolina Coach of the Year honors.

During his stay in Augusta, Mercogliano served as the official scorer and musical operations director for the Augusta GreenJackets, the Class A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Twice, Mercogliano was pressed into emergency service as an umpire for the South Atlantic League when the regular umpires became too ill to work. He also served as color analyst for Augusta State basketball, as well as handling play-by-play duties for the WRDW Game of the Week in football, basketball, and baseball.

Mercogliano is a 1992 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Pembroke, where he earned a degree in communications with an emphasis in public relations. In Albuquerque, he has continued on that path, serving as a play-by-play broadcaster for select internet broadcasts of Lobo soccer, baseball, and softball. He has also served as an official scorer, datacaster, field timing coordinator, and BOSS operator for the Albuquerque Isotopes since 2011 and for Major League Baseball since 2022.

His wife, Melissa, graduated from Idaho State and currently teaches in the Rio Rancho school district. They have three daughters: Jessica, Kristina, and Angela. He earned his master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in the summer of 2006 after earning a bachelor's degree in English with a PR and communications emphasis from UNC Pembroke (then Pembroke State) in 1992, where he was a four-year letterwinner in men's soccer as a goalkeeper.

Allison Weiss
Director of Communications
Wisconsin, 2011
Madison, Wisc.

Allison Weiss joined the Lobo Family in August 2018, serving as the Director of Communications. She currently has sports responsibility for women's basketball, softball, soccer, and serves as secondary for football. During her time at UNM, she has also served as the contact for swimming and diving, cross country/track and field, volleyball, and beach volleyball. She came to UNM originally as assistant director of communications before moving to her current position in May of 2024.

Before joining the Lobos, she handled all facets of publicity and social media at the University of Denver for the Pioneers' volleyball program and women's lacrosse program. While working with Denver, she aided in hosting the 2017 Summit League Volleyball Tournament, which Denver also hosted.

Previously, Weiss spent two years in the athletic communications office at the University of Oklahoma, serving as the lead contact for Oklahoma's cross country and track and field programs, handling publicity, graphics, and social media. While at Oklahoma, she also worked closely with the OU softball program, including the 2016 College World Series. She also handled various duties associated with Sooner football and men's basketball.

She earned her degree in political science from the University of Wisconsin in 2011 and a master's degree in education from the University of Oklahoma in 2017.

35 Game 1: 8/24/2024 Albuquerque, N.M. 31 Att: 17,314

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- Montana State outscored New Mexico 21-0 in the final quarter as the No. 4 FCS Bobcats defeated the Lobos. The Bobcats got the winning score on a 4-yard Scottre Humphrey run with 10 seconds left in the game. That score gave MSU its first lead of the game.

Until that fourth quarter, it was a stellar performance by the Lobos, which got two touchdowns by the offense and two by the defense to take a 31-14 lead. The Lobos scored twice on fumble recoveries, the first time that has happened in at least 50 years.

The Lobos got into Montana State territory on the opening possession but had to punt, but the defense ended up scoring first. On second down from midfield, Jayden Wilson sacked Tommy Mellott, who fumbled, and the ball bounced right to Christian Ellis, who raced 41 yards for his first career touchdown. Luke Drzewiecki added a 45-yard field goal later in the quarter and UNM led 10-0 at the break.

It was 17-0 after Devon Dampier hit Trace Bruckler for a 12-yard touchdown and just 1:15 into the second quarter UNM led 17-0. After that, Montana State started to get its offense in gear, and they got on the board with a 5-yard pass from Mellott to Rylan Schlepp. That was the first of five 75-yard touchdown drives for the Bobcats.

Mellott threw a second TD, this to an open Ty McCullouch to make it 17-14, but UNM answered as Dampier scored untouched from 24 yards out on a drive in which UNM never faced a third down. That made it 24-14, and it stayed that way into halftime.

UNM's only score in the second half came on the opening drive for Montana State when Gabe Lopez sacked Mellott and knocked the ball loose with Noah Avinger picking it up and scurrying 13 yards for a second defensive touchdown. That made it 31-14 and set up the fateful fourth quarter.

The Bobcats, after getting stopped by Ellis and Bobby Arnold III on the fourth-and-1 at the Lobo 25 in the third quarter, opened the fourth with a 15-yard run by Mellott.

UNM drove from its 25 to the Bobcat 23-yard line, but on third-and-5, Eli Sanders lost two yards and with the wind suddenly whipping to 40 miles per hour, Drzewiecki missed his second field goal of the game. In the end, UNM's defense got a stop as Ellis and Randolph Kpai got in Mellott's face and forced an incompletion from the Bobcat 42. UNM had the ball up 10 in MSU territory with just 6:15 to go.

However UNM couldn't kill much clock and on third down, Luke Wysong dropped an out-pattern that had the first down and a lot more, forcing UNM to punt. On the second play of the drive, Adam Jones went around the left end and raced 93 yards for the second-longest rushing touchdown in MSU history, and the second-longest one given up by UNM. That made it 31-28 with 4:35 left.

UNM again got the ball back, and picked up one first down, but another critical third-down drop, this by Caleb Medford, force a punt. A catch there would have forced MSU to use its final timeout with the two-minute warning and at worst-case gotten the ball back with under 30 seconds. Instead, a Rodriguez punt meant the Bobcats would start with 1:59 left at its 11.

The key plays on the drive were a pair of third-down conversions. The first was a broken play that went for 37 yards and put the Bobcats in field goal territory. The second came on third-and -6 from the Lobo 16 and set up MSU at the 4, where they took the lead on the next play.

39 Game 2: 8/31/2024 Tucson, Ariz. 61 Att: 44,748

TUCSON, Ariz. --- No. 21 Arizona scored two touchdowns in the opening 2:34 of the second half to give itself some breathing room and New Mexico couldn't ever quite close the gap as the Wildcats outlasted the Lobos 61-39 at Arizona Stadium. The loss dropped UNM to 0-2 on the year while Arizona started 1-0.

The loss spoiled a brilliant offensive day for UNM as Devon Dampier and Luke Wysong both had career days, but there was no stopping Terairoa McMillan, who had 10 catches for an Arizona record 304 yards and four touchdowns. The 304 yards were the most ever allowed by UNM, besting the 281 by Marshall Sperbeck of Boise State, who did that on 14 catches on November 14, 2015 in UNM's 31-24 win over the Broncos.

The Lobos went toe-to-toe with the Wildcats in the first half in what was a back-and-forth affair in the opening 30 minutes. Arizona scored on a 69-yard pass from Fafita to McMillan in what was the start of a career-day for him. However, UNM had an answer as Dampier led the Lobos right down the field, and two highlight reel catches by Luke Wysong, the last from 16 yards out tied the game at 7-7.

After Arizona responded with another Fifita to McMillan scoring strike, this from 17 yards, UNM again answered with Na'Quari Rogers scoring his first UNM touchdown on a short pass from Dampier. That made it 14-14 at the break. After the teams traded field goals at the start of the third, UNM got a stop when Noa Pola-Gates, who played terrific with two pass breakups, forced a tipped pass that Christian Ellis picked off. That led to a Dampier 13 yard touchdown run and a 24-17.

That lead was short-lived as Fifita had time and hit a crossing McMillan for his third touchdown of the half, this time going for a 78-yard catch and run for a 24-24 tie. A late 46-yard field goal by Tyler Loop gave the 'Cats a 27-24 lead at the break. The Wildcats opened the second half with the ball and on a third-and-1 from midfield, Quali Conley raced 51 yards for a touchdown and a 34-24 lead. The back-breaker came when a Dampier pass went off the hands of a Lobo receiver and into the waiting arms of Treydan Stukes. Arizona took that interception and turned it into six when McMillan caught his fourth TD on the next pass, this from 40 yards out for a 41-24 lead.

Dampier led UNM right back and got UNM within 10 with some nifty work. He hit Nic Trujillo to move the sticks on third down, and then eventually scored his second rushing touchdown when he faked a pitch and scored from seven yards out.

After another Conley TD made it 48-31, UNM was forced to punt, but Aaron Rodriguez' punt hit a Wildcat blocker and Hyrum Hatch, the long snapper, recovered for UNM. The Lobos couldn't capitalize on the short field and Conley eventually added his third TD to make it 55-31.

The Lobos stayed in the game with a 13-play, 75-yard touchdown drive with Dampier accounting for a fifth touchdown on the night, hitting Caleb Medford for a 9-yard score. UNM went for two and Dampier flipped the ball to Eli Sanders for a deuce and UNM was within two scores at 55-41. The Lobos didn't recover the onside kick and Arizona tacked on a late TD to account for the 61-39 final.

Game 3: 9/14/2024
Auburn, Ala.
Att: 88,043

AUBURN, Ala. --- New Mexico threw a critical interception in the third quarter on a fourth-and-5 and UNM couldn't capitalize in the red zone in the first half and Auburn was able to outlast the Lobos 45-19 in a game that was playing in the rain for most of the game. Auburn pulled away after halftime in a game that was just 17-13 Tigers at the break.

UNM had four first half drives in the red zone but only got 13 points on a touchdown and two field goals. UNM opened the game with a 60-yard drive that led to a 33-yard Luke Drzewiecki field goal. UNM missed a shot at an early touchdown when Devon Dampier, who threw for a career-high 291 yards in the game, just missed a diving Luke Wysong in the end zone. It marked the second straight game in which Dampier threw for a career-high.

Auburn got a 66-yard kickoff return to the UNM 32, and the Tigers took nine plays to get into the end zone for a 7-3 lead. The Loibos answered right back with its lone touchdown drive of the opening half. A 3-yard Na'Quari Rogers touchdown was set up by a wild over-the-shoulder catch from Caleb Medford on a season-long 42-yard reception. The Lobos ran a version of the swinging gate and Justin Holaday ran the ball in for a two-point conversion, but a motion penalty negated that, so UNM was up 10-7.

Auburn eventually scored on its next two possessions for a 17-10 lead, sandwiched around a richochet interception for the Tigers. UNM went down and got a second Drzewiecki field goal to make it 17-13, but could have had six as a long pass from Dampier to Jacobs was a little behind the running back, and he adjusted to make the catch but got caught from behind.

After a three-and-out, UNM again drove into the red zone, but Drzewiecki missed a 37-yard field goal in a driving rain storm as the game got sloppy due to the conditions.

After the break at 17-13 Auburn, the Tigers took the second half kickoff and went 75 yards in 10 plays with Hunter Brown tossing a 3-yard touchdown pass to Micah Riley. UNM drove the field but on fourth-and-5 from the 25-yard line, Bronco Mendenhall passed on a field goal and went for it, but a pass to Ryan Davis had its timing thrown off when he was clipped by a defender, and the pass was intercepted, eventually leading to a touchdown and a 31-13 lead.

The Lobos got back in it early in the fourth when Caleb Medford hauled in a four-yard touchdown pass from Dampier to make it 31-19, missing on a two-point conversion. Auburn then gave itself breathing room with a third straight second half touchdown after a long kickoff return to the UNM 43 set up a short field, with a third Hank Brown touchdown pass making it 38-19, and a fourth quarter TD after a missed fourth down conversion made it the final of 45-19.

UNM gained 448 yards on offense and allowed 503 but were hampered by a 16 penalties, third-most in school history, although they went for just 112 total.

Game 4: 9/21/2024
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 18,019

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Fresno State took an early lead and never let UNM into the game, despite a solid effort, as the Bulldogs moved to 3-1 on the season and 1-0 in the Mountain West with a 31-10 victory over UNM, the seventh straight win in Albuquerque over UNM for the Bulldogs. The Lobos dropped to 0-4 and 0-1 in the Mountain West.

The Lobos head on the road next week to take on rival New Mexico State in Las Cruces.

UNM's defense opened the game with a three-and-out, forcing an early punt by the Bulldogs, but UNM coughed the ball up. On third down, Eli Sanders went around the end for a first down but the ball was punched out and recovered at the Lobo 39-yard line. The defense held tough, but Fresno State eventually scored on the 10th play of the drive on a 5-yard toss from Mikey Keene to Josiah Freeman, and then Fresno State ran the swinging gate for a two-point conversion for an 8-0 lead.

UNM then went right down the field, going 73 yards on 14 plays, but UNM couldn't punch it in on first-and-goal from the 10-yard line when on third down Devon Dampier's scramble only got to the three-yard line. Fresno State responded with a touchdown to go up 15-3, and eventually the Bulldogs went up 25-3 when a trick play halfback pass turned into a 26-yard touchdown with 1:24 to go in the half.

UNM started its next drive at the 7-yard line, but moved all the way down the field, scoring on a 5-yard Dampier to Trace Bruckler pass for a 25-10 deficit with six seconds left in the half. UNM then got the ball to start the third quarter, but couldn't move it. Eventually Fresno State kicked a field goal, and then UNM, down 28-10, got hurt with a pair of penalties.

First, a holding call nullified a 58-yard Dampier to Nic Trujillo score that would have made it 28-16 with the conversion pending in the third quarter. After that was marked off, UNM continued down the field and a Dampier scramble to the half-yard line was nullified by another holding penalty, and UNM had to settle for a second Luke Drzewiecki field goal.

After a stop, UNM in desperation mode down 28-13 went for a fourth-and-1 at its own 12-yard line and couldn't convert. Fresno State eventually punched that one in, somehow getting three first downs due to penalties, giving the Bulldogs a 35-13 lead.

After UNM got a 1-yard run by Javen Jacobs and then a two-point conversion run by backup quarterback James Laubstein, UNM looked to have recovered an onside kick, but Isaiah Chavez was called for being offside, although all replays showed otherwise. A second onside was almost recovered by UNM again, but Fresno State knocked it out of bounds, and Fresno State added a late field goal to close the scoring.

UNM outgained the Bulldogs 485 to 345, the 345 being the lowest output allowed by UNM this season.

Game 5: 9/28/2024
Las Cruces, N.M.
Att: 21,062

LAS CRUCES, N.M. --- New Mexico rushed for seven touchdowns including a back-breaking 50-yard touchdown on an end-around by Javen Jacobs as the Lobos rolled to 579 yards of offense in taking the 114th meeting of the Rio Grande Rivalry, winning 50-40 over New Mexico State. The 50 points were the most by the Lobos in Aggie Memorial Stadium in 30 years.

The Lobos never trailed in the game, and were tied just once, at 7-7. UNM rushed for 331 yards in the game, it's most of the season, and never suffered an offensive play for a loss until Devon Dampier took two kneel-downs to end the game. The team's seven rushing touchdowns were rolled up by three players with three by Dampier, three by Na'Quari Rogers and one by Jacobs.

Rogers was the superstar with 122 yards rushing on just 21 carries with his career-best three touchdowns.

Up 21-10, UNM opened the third quarter with a 75-yard drive that took just 3:01 with Dampier racing in from 24 yards out. UNM went for a two-point conversion and missed, keeping the game at 27-10. The Aggies answered with a touchdown to make it 27-17, but Luke Drzewiecki capped off a time-consuming driving with a short 20-yard field goal and UNM had a 30-17 lead at the end of three.

UNM then held on a first-and-goal, allowing just a short field goal to move the score to 30-20, but Na'Quari Rogers scored his second rushing touchdown of the day to make it 36-20. It stayed a two-score game when UNM missed the extra point. The Aggies scored but missed their own two-point conversion leaving it at 10 points, 36-26. After Nigel Williams recovered the onside kick, UNM faced a third-and-9 at midfield when Jacobs went around the end and outraced everyone for a clinching touchdown. The Aggies tacked on a touchdown on a quarterback scramble but Williams again recovered the onside kick, and again UNM ended up scoring as Rogers scored on the third play from 29 yards out with 1:46 to go, making it 50-33.

The Aggies ended the scoring with a 2-yard run on a drive that was aided by four penalties. UNM didn't need to recover the onside this time as it was kicked straight out of bounds, and Dampier knelt down twice for the win.

The Lobos took a 21-10 lead into the break when Dampier scored his second touchdown of the game with just 22 seconds left in the half. That capped a 67-yard drive, although UNM allowed a late long field goal by the Aggies to make it 21-10 at the break.

The Lobos pulled away in the second quarter when Dampier led UNM on a long 95-yard touchdown drive, capping that off with first of his three touchdowns. Dampier, who started the game just 6-for-15 passing, ended up 13-for-28 for 248 yards but his career-high three TDs led the way.

Rogers capped the opening touchdown drive, a drive that featured UNM converting on a fourth-and-1. On the first play after that touchdown, New Mexico State got an 84-yard run for a score, but until the field goal at the end of the half, that was its only points.

37 Air Force
52 New Mexico

Game 6: 10/12/2024
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 15,561

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- New Mexico's offense rolled with five more rushing touchdowns, Luke Wysong had his second career punt return touchdown and the Lobos rolled to a second straight win, taking down Air Force 52-37 in a game that marked the first conference win at New Mexico for Bronco Mendenhall.

The Lobos overall rushed for 255 yards with Eli Sanders scoring two touchdowns on the ground, Devon Dampier scoring two and Sol-Jay Maiava-Peters getting one. Sanders scored on a pair of long runs, of 35 and 31 yards as he had a team-best 80 yards on just five carries. The 50 points by UNM in back-to-back games marked the first time UNM had done that is 108 years.

UNM's only drive in which they didn't score was the opening drive of the game in which UNM went three-and-out. Air Force went down the field after a 49-yard punt by Aaron Rodriguez, but on a third-and-5 from the Lobo 22, Christian Ellis and Bobby Arnold III tackled Tylor Latham for a four-yard loss forcing a field goal.

From there, UNM's offense was basically unstoppable. Dampier led a 75-yard touchdown drive, finishing it off with a 7-yard touchdown run to make it 7-3 with 14 seconds left in the first quarter. On Air Force's next drive, Moso Tuitele sacked quarterback Quentin Hayes to force a punt, and Luke Freer outkicked his coverage with a 57-yard boot. Luke Wysong, returning his first punt of the season, took it at the Lobo 21, shook out of a tackle, got a great seal block from Max Lantzsch in his first game as a Lobo and he was off to the races for a 79-yard touchdown. That made it 14-3, and UNM really was never threatened after that.

The teams traded touchdowns for the rest of the second quarter, with Air Force scoring on a 5-yard Cade Harris run, but the Lobos quickly answered. After two Sol-Jay Maiava-Peters runs, Dampier hit Wysong for a 19-yard gain. Facing third down at the 18, Dampier hit Nic Trujillo for the freshman's first career touchdown, giving UNM a 21-10 lead. Air Force responded again on a short run set up by its first completion of the game, but UNM basically killed off the final 2:46 of the half, scoring a back-breaking touchdown with 11 seconds left.

On that drive, Dampier found Wysong twice, and then he combined with him on a lateral play for 16 yards. Eventually on first-and-goal with 14 seconds left, Dampier waltzed in from two yards out for his third touchdowns of the game, second rushing, and UNM had a 28-17 halftime lead.

On the first drive of the second half, Air Force went for it on fourth-and-1 from its 34 but Noah Avinger broke through for a tackle for loss, and UNM took over at the Falcon 32. Maiava-Peters entered at quarterback and rushed twice to cover the 32 yards for a 35-17 lead.

On its next drive, Air Force fumbled and Dimitri Johnson recovered, giving UNM the ball again in Air Force territory, and that led to a short Luke Drzewiecki field goal and a 38-17 lead. Eli Sanders then scored after another failed four down by Air Force for a 45-17 after three quarters.

The game was effectively over from there, although Air Force did put up 20 points in the final quarter. They got a little help when the only defensive penalty of the game continued a drive after a third-down stop. Overall, UNM seemingly solved its penalty issues, with just four on the day after a school record 17 in its last game.

Sanders completed the scoring for UNM with a second long touchdown run, giving UNM five rushing touchdowns one game after seven against New Mexico State.

50 Game 7: 10/19/2024
45 Logan, Utah
Att: 14,584

LOGAN, Utah --- In a game in which both offenses combined for 1,055 and 95 points, it was the Lobo defense that came up with arguably the two biggest plays of the game, getting a fourth down stop with 2:18 to go leading to an Eli Sanders go ahead touchdown, and then Dimitri Johnson picked off Spencer Petras with 59 seconds left to give New Mexico a wild 50-45 victory in Logan. The win was UNM's third straight, its longest in-season winning streak in eight years, and it moved the Lobos to 3-4 overall and 2-1 in the Mountain West, good for fifth place in the 12-team league.

The Lobos overcame a 17-point first half deficit and a 16-point second half deficit. The 17-point comeback tied for the sixth-largest in school history, and it was the largest since a school-record 21-point comeback against UTEP on November 23, 1974. The 16-point second half deficit was the largest second half deficit overcome in school history.

It was keyed by a 21-point fourth quarter for New Mexico with the Lobos trailing 38-29. After forcing a three-and-out that followed a Devon Dampier interception at the 1-yard line, UNM set up shop at their own 49-yard line. UNM kept the ball on the ground and Eli Sanders did yeoman's work on the drive, carrying on five of the seven plays on the drive. He went around the end to cover the final 20 yards to make it 38-36. Utah State answered right back with a Herschel Turner 43-yard run for a score, and it was 45-36 with 7:43 left.

That's when UNM went to work again, twice converting long third downs and getting a fourth down conversion as well. The first was on third-and-10, a 14-yard gain to Luke Wysong. On fourth-and-6, Dampier went deep to Ryan Davis, and he somehow made the catch between two defenders for an incredible conversion. Dampier than hit Trace Bruckler for a 10-yard gain on third-and-9 from the 14 before Dampier finished it with a 5-yard run.

Up 45-43 with 3:53 to go, Utah State got three straight three-yard gains to set up fourth-and-1 from its own 34-yard line. Petras tried to keep it, but a host of Lobos including Devin Brandt-Epps and Garrison Walker made the stop for no gain giving UNM the ball.

The Lobos needed a first down to force Utah State to use all its timeouts, which it got on a 15-yard run by Dampier with a 1:40 to go. UNM then took the lead with 1:13 left when Eli Sanders was basically allowed to waltz into the end zone untouched. That gave UNM a 50-45 lead, and two plays later Johnson snagged a pass over the middle for a game-clinching interception.

Nothing went right for UNM in the opening quarter as the Lobos were outgained 169-31 in the first quarter as Utah State raced to a 14-0 lead after one. After an opening drive for UNM fizzled, the Lobos got a fourth down stop in Aggie territory, but a facemask penalty as they were riding the rusher out of bounds gave Utah State a fresh set of downs, and they made UNM pay.

Quarterback Spencer Petras rushed in from two yards out for a 7-0 lead, and after a three-and-out and short punt, the Aggies again went down the field, as Rahsul Faison scored from the 6-yard line. The Aggies then made it 17-0 on the first play of the second quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Tanner Cragun.

UNM finally got the break it needed when it punted and Aaron Rodriguez' 45-yard punt was fumbled and Noa Pola-Gates recovered at the Aggie 21-yard line. That led to a Devon Dampier to Javen Jacobs connection from the 21 and UNM trailed 17-6. The Lobos then run a trick play on the conversion to make it 17-8. After a long punt, UNM drove 90 yards in 10 plays with Dampier again finding the end zone, this time with Ryan Davis on the back-end of a 14-yard completion for a 17-15 deficit.

However, Utah State scored at the end of the half and on the opening drive of the second, to open up a 16-point lead in the third quarter.

6 Game 8: 10/26/2024
17 Fort Collins, Colo.
Att: 36,980

FORT COLLINS, Colo. --- New Mexico's record-setting offense could never capitalize when it needed to, suffering from untimely penalties, a missed field goal and costly fumble inside the five-yard line and four turnovers overall as UNM's three-game winning streak ended at the hands of Colorado State, falling 17-6 in Fort Collins. It ran CSU's winning streak to 13 straight over UNM.

The Lobos dropped to 3-5 overall and 2-2 in the Mountain West and UNM hosts Wyoming at 2 pm at University Stadium on Saturday. Colorado State moved to 5-3 overall and 3-0 in the Mountain West. New Mexico was looking for its third straight road win, which would have been a first since 2007.

The loss dampened a terrific outing by the Lobo defense, which allowed just 10 points and just 334, it fewest allowed this year. The only touchdown came after a 30-yard Luke Drzewiecki field goal when Caleb Goodie hauled in a 46-yard touchdown pass from Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi, but that was the only offensive touchdown for Colorado State. The Lobo defense forced a punt on every drive of the second half until the Rams took a knee with under a minute left.

After a drive in which UNM looked like it was moving into the Colorado State down 7-3, Devon Dampier was called for an illegal forward pass, turning a 15-yard gain into a third-and-10. Dampier was then sacked and Aaron Rodriguez' ensuing punt was returned 82 yards for a touchdown by Kobe Johnson for a 14-3 lead. The Rams tacked on a 47-yard field goal at the end of the half.

From there, the Lobo defense came up with stop after stop, and UNM just could never cash in. On the opening drive of the second half, UNM moved right down the field to end up with third-and-goal at the 1-yard line, but a false start moved UNM back and Dampier fumbled on the next snap. After a three-and-out, UNM again was in Colorado State territory and convert a third-and-3 at the 34-yard line but a holding penalty moved UNM back, although it did eventually convert on fourth down. That drive ended in Drzewiecki's second field goal of the game, this from 44 to make it 17-6.

A second straight three-and-out gave UNM the ball, and again UNM moved into CSU territory. UNM took two shots to the end zone and from the 26, the Lobos ended up not scoring when Drzewiecki missed a 43-yard field goal. After a punt to the 1-yard line, the Lobos got to midfield before punting, and twice in the fourth quarter the Lobos drove into CSU territory but Dampier threw interceptions on both drives.

Penalties were both plentiful for UNM, but they were untimely, and almost exclusively on the offense. Driving for a potential score in the second quarter, a face mask on the offense moved them out of field goal range, and then on a 52-yard attempt for Drzewiecki, a substitution penalty moved UNM out of range. Overall UNM had 10 penalties with nine on offense and one on the field goal attempt.

49 Game 9: 11/2/2024 Albuquerque, N.M. 45 Att: 15,046

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- In a game where the two teams combined for 1,180 yards of offense, it was an interception return for a touchdown by Wyoming's Wrook Brown that set up a fourth quarter comeback to give the Cowboys a 49-45 win over New Mexico and deal the Lobos a blow to potential bowl hopes.

Wyoming moved to 2-7 overall and 2-3 in the Mountain West, and UNM is now 3-6 overall and 2-3 in the Mountain West. The Lobos must win the final three games to get bowl eligible. UNM plays at San Diego State on Friday night in San Diego.

After a wild first half in which there were 10 touchdowns and the game was even at 35, UNM built a 45-35 lead on a Luke Drzewiecki 30-yard field goal and then a dazzling 85-yard touchdown run by quarterback Devon Dampier, who cut right, broke a tackle and raced for the longest run ever by a UNM quarterback. That touchdown run came after a Noah Avinger interception at the Lobo 8-yard line that snuffed out a Wyoming drive and was another big play by the Lobo defense in the quarter. On the opening drive of the second half, UNM stopped Wyoming on a fourth-and-1, a play that led to the field goal drive and the UNM lead.

Wyoming drove to the Lobo 23 to open the fourth quarter, but that drive stalled and John Hoyland, who earlier in the game became the all-time leading scorer in Cowboy history, missed wide right from 40 yards. UNM took over with 13:02 to go at the 23, and a score could have put the game out of reach. Instead, it was Wyoming that scored. On the first play of the drive, Dampier threw towards Ryan Davis, but Wrook Davis stepped in front of it at the 29-yard line and raced untouched for a touchdown, and suddenly a Wyoming team that could do nothing in the second half was back within three at 45-42.

UNM got just one first down and had to punt, and the Cowboys drove 88 yards in 11 plays, overcoming a pass interference in the end zone. On second-and-goal after the pass interference moved the ball to the Lobo 27, Kaden Anderson, making his first start, hit Justin Stevenson for a 27-yard touchdown and a 49-45 lead.

UNM mounted a comeback attempt, moving the ball into Wyoming territory. Eli Sanders burst through the line to the Cowboy 27-yard line, but a holding call negated it and made it first-and-20. On third-and-14, Dampier was sacked from behind and fumbled, with Wyoming recovering. The Cowboys ran out the clock from there.

The opening half was wild with 717 yards and 70 combined points. UNM opened the scoring with a 10-yard touchdown from Dampier to Ryan Davis, but UNM's two-point conversion failed. Eli Sanders had a 34-yard touchdown run to answer a Wyoming score, but the Cowboys another touchdown pass and a rushing touchdown by Anderson. Dampier answered with an 18-yard score, and then UNM's Trace Bruckler scored his third rushing two-pointer of the season.

The teams traded touchdowns going into halftime, with Dampier scoring from 40 yards out and Sanders from 75 yards out.

21 Game 10: 11/8/2024 San Diego, Calif. 16 Att: 21,832

SAN DIEGO, Calif. --- Ryan Davis made a one-handed catch in the end zone for the go-ahead score with 13:07 left, and Randolph Kpai led UNM's best defensive effort of the year with 15 tackles, two PBUs, a sack, a TFL and a QB hurry as UNM allowed just 341 yards to San Diego State as the Lobos stayed alive for bowl eligibility with a 21-16 win over the Aztecs in a Friday night prime time contest at Snapdragon Stadium.

The Lobos improved to 4-6 and 3-3 in the Mountain West while San Diego State dropped to 3-6 and 2-2 in conference play. The win was UNM's third road win of the season, giving UNM three away from home for the first time since winning three road games in 2014. The Lobos also now have three Mountain West wins, equaling the number of Mountain West wins over the previous three seasons combined (3-21).

The Lobo defense allowed just one touchdown despite 88 total plays against them, including 19 plays inside the red zone and 15 plays in an and-goal situation. UNM had a season-high tying eight TFLs and six pass breakups in allowing just 341 total yards and forcing five punts.

The winning score capped a nine play, 65-yard drive that was helped at the start by a face mask penalty on a tackle of Devon Dampier. Dampier converted a third-and-4 from the 30 with a 10-yard run, giving UNM its first play in the red zone of the game. After a short pass to Luke Wysong and another Dampier first down run, he hit Ryan Davis in the end zone. The pass was a little behind Davis but he snagged it with one hand and then secured it with both for the lead that UNM would never relinquish.

The Aztecs on their next drive twice converted third downs to move into UNM territory. After a 9-yard gain to give the Aztecs second-and-1 at the Lobo 35, UNM got a pair of big defensive plays. Drew Speech, playing his first defensive snaps of the season, broke up a pass in the end zone on second down, and then Noah Avinger dropped Cam Davis for a four-yard loss, forcing a punt.

UNM was backed up to its own 2-yard line, but UNM got three first downs to flip the field, and Aaron Rodriguez pinned the Aztecs at the 4-yard line. San Diego State got one first down but Kpai knocked down a pass, one of his two breakups on the day to force a punt, and UNM was able to run out the final 3:11 of the game.

Kpai was a monster, with 15 tackles, 10 of them solo. He had a hurry and a pass breakup on a hard hit on Danny O'Neill in the second half, and he earned a sack when he forced an intentional grounding with nine seconds left in the half to knock the Aztecs out of field goal range.

The Aztecs took their first lead with just over a minute left in the third quarter as Gabriel Plascencia finished off a long 16-play, 80-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal. After that long drive the Aztecs not only were leading in time of possession, nearly doubling UNM, but also in total plays with 73 to UNM's 33.

Sanders led UNM in the opening half with two long touchdown runs, and UNM's defense but didn't really break in the half. Sanders opened UNM's scoring with a 51-yard run, and then he followed that with a 68-yard touchdown. On the 51-yard run he broke a key tackle attempt by former Lobo Cody Moon to spring him, and on the 68-yard, he was virtually untouched.

Sanders' first touchdown capped a 99-yard drive that took just four plays and 1:24 on the clock. UNM opened with a short pass to Sanders to get off the 1-yard line, and then after a first down Devon Dampier run, he hit Caleb Medford for 35 yards to midfield before Sanders finished it off from 51 yards out.

The Lobos never ran a play in the red zone in the first half, and San Diego State ran 15, but the Aztecs only got one touchdown, that a 5-yard Marquez Cooper catch. Otherwise, all the Aztecs could muster were a pair of Plascencia field goals, one from 22 yards and one from 31.

35 Game 11: 11/16/2024 Albuquerque, N.M. 38 Att: 14,067

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- Devon Dampier finished a record-breaking evening with his fourth total touchdown to give UNM a lead with 23 seconds left, and then in a perfect microcosm of UNM's depleted defense somehow making plays time and again, Drew Speech, who entered the game having played two plays all year, knocked away a Hail Mary with no time left as the Lobos shocked No. 19/18 Washington State 38-35 to keep their Bowl hope alive. The win pushed UNM to 5-6 overall, and it marks the most wins for the team since 2016.

The win also ended a bunch of long streaks. It marked UNM's first win over any kind over a ranked team after 26 straight losses. UNM's last win over a ranked team was on October 25, 2003 when it beat Utah in Salt Lake City 47-35. It was UNM's first win over a top 20 team since November 5, 1994 when UNM beat No. 8 Utah 23-21 at University Stadium.

As for the last non-conference Top-20 win? You have to go back 84 years, to November 30, 1940 when UNM beat Texas Tech at Zimmerman Field 19-14.

Down 28-14 at the break, the Lobos defense for the fourth straight game looked like world-beaters in the second half, allowing just a solitary touchdown. The Lobos got back into the game on the legs of Dampier and a solid ground game as Dampier rushed for 143 yards in the second half and UNM as a group rushed for 268 yards after half time, punishing Washington State's defense.

The Lobos went to work on its opening second half drive, twice converting third downs after going 0-for-5 in the first half. After a punishing 13-yard run from Na'Quari Rogers, Dampier broke a tackle and raced in from 33 yards out to make it 28-21. The teams traded punts and then UNM's defense held on third-and-2 after an incompletion by John Mateer, who was brilliant for the Cougars, and UNM's offense went to work again. Dampier hit Ryan Davis for a key 16-yard gain to get the drive moving, and then he hit Luke Wysong for 15 yards to cross midfield.

Eli Sanders finished that drive off with a 26-yard run and with 25 seconds left in the third quarter, UNM had leveled it at 28. The fourth quarter featured three lead changes. UNM retook the lead with an 86-yard drive that stalled at the 2-yard line but ended in a 19-yard Luke Drzewiecki field goal. Washington State then mustered its only sustained second half drive with Mateer hitting Kyle Williams for the second time in the game for a 37-yard touchdown and a 35-31 Wazzu lead.

That was more than enough time for Dampier and UNM. Facing third-and-2 just before the two-minute timeout, Eli Sanders took a jet sweep for 33 yards, giving him over 100 yards and setting up UNM at the Washington State 34. After Rogers got UNM to the 12-yard line, Dampier carried the final four times, the last from a yard out for a 38-35 lead with 23 seconds left. Washington moved the ball to its own 43 yard line in time for a final Hail Mary which was knocked down short of the goal line by Speech, and the celebration was on.

Washington State's offense looked indefensible early on as Mateer led the Cougars to three straight touchdowns after UNM opened the scoring. The Lobos took the opening kickoff and went right down the field, moving 75 yards in 11 plays with Dampier finishing it off with a 7-yard run, the first of his four total touchdowns.

From there, it turned into the Mateer show, as he led touchdown drives of 90, 74 and 93 yards. He capped the first with a 28-yard pass to Carlos Hernandez, the second with a five-yard run on his own, and on the third, he hit Kyle Williams from 20 yards out. That made it 21-7 and after a third straight punt for UNM, the Lobo defense finally held, forcing a punt. That punt came after Mateer's first incompletion that ended his opening string of 11 straight completions.

UNM was able to follow that up with a touchdown to make it 21-14 when Dampier hit a wide-open Caleb Medford near the goal line for what in the end was a 42-yard touchdown pass. The Cougars answered that score with a 29-yard scoring toss from Mateer to take a 28-14 lead into the break.

30 Game 12: 11/30/2024 Honolulu, Haw. 38 Att: 12,046

HONOLULU, Haw. — For a third time this season, a freshman quarterback making his first start led a Lobo opponent to a victory, and this one came against a Lobo defense that was hanging on by a thread as the season wore down. Micah Alejado was 37-for-57 passing for 469 yards and five touchdowns as Hawai'i outlasted New Mexico 38-30 and ended UNM's bowl hopes as the Lobos finished the season at 5-7 overall, and 3-4 in the conference.

UNM seemingly was playing from behind the entire game, and down 31-16 in the fourth quarter, Devon Dampier scampered in for his third rushing touchdown of the game and 19th of the season, tying DonTrell Moore's school record, to make it a 31-23 game with 13:53 remaining. The Lobos needed a three and out, and seemingly got it. On a third-and-1 pass, Alejado hit Tamatoa Mokiao-Atimalala for a first down, but the play was reviewed and while the ball pretty clearly hit the turf with rubber pellets flying everywhere, the play stood after review.

Instead of a punt, the Rainbow Warriors got a first down, and they made the most of the break. With the drive continuing, UNM had a second chance to get off the field as UNM forced a third-and-16, but Alajedo and Jonah Panoke hooked up for a diving 45-yard catch to the three-yard line, and Hawai'i punched it in from there for a 38-23 lead.

Once again, UNM responded with a third straight touchdown drive as Na'Quari Rogers darted in from a yard out with 2:34 left. UNM nearly go the onside kick as quarterback Isaiah Chavez knocked the ball loose but it bounced right into the arms of Spencer Curtis. The Rainbow Warriors than had to convert two first downs, and they got the first on an Alejado scramble in which he hit Curtis for 11 yards. Hawai'I got one more first down and took knees from there.

New Mexico had several missed opportunities in the opening half. After a Hawai'i touchdown made it 7-0, Luke Drzewiecki missed a 42-yard field goal. UNM got a stop and moved down the field with Dampier finishing off the drive from 3-yards out. The Lobos went for two and James Laubstein was stopped just short of the goal line, missing a wide-open Hyrum Hatch in the end zone. That meant UNM trailed 7-6.

Hawai'i answered right back as Alejado hit Dekel Crowdus for a 52-yard touchdown just 40 seconds later and it was 14-6 Rainbow Warriors. Drzewiecki connected on a 36-yard field goal but Alejado threw his third touchdown pass of the half, hitting Mokiao-Atimalala from 16 yards out for a 21-9 lead.

UNM drove the length of the field, but on Dampier run to the 24-yard line for a first down, he was hit and fumbled, snuffing out the drive. That drive ended with a missed Kansei Matsuzawa 33-yard field goal attempt, making it 21-9 at the break for the Rainbow Warriors.

Kasey Carrier was a durable back who excelled in the option game, even playing as an option quarterback at times due to injury. He owns the top two single-game marks for yards from scrimmage with 343 against Air Force and 291 against UTEP. Amazingly, three of the top five marks all-time in single-game yardage came against UTEP.

Among the top-10 best seasons for yards from scrimmage, DonTrell Moore has four of them, one for each season he played. Those four years equaled 5,830 total yards from scrimmage, the best mark all-time at UNM a number that might never again be approached by a Lobo.

Bowl History

1939 SUN BOWL
Jan. 2, 1939 • El Paso, Texas
Utah 26, New Mexico 0

Playing in its first bowl game, the New Mexico Lobos were shut out by the Utah Utes 26-0 in the 4th Annual Sun Bowl at Kidd Field in El Paso.

(Note: The remainder of this story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Paul Weeks and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Like a kite that had flown too high, New Mexico's far-famed "dipsy-doo" football circus blew up and out of control before 13,000 disappointed Sun Bowl fans with a powerful tribe of Utah Indians (as they were called at the time) pouring on a humiliating 26-0 defeat.

The Utes matched their conservative style of the game as taught by Coach Ike Armstrong against the once-colorful attack of the Hilltoppers (as the Lobos were sometimes called) to claim gridiron superiority as Big Seven champions over the Lobos, co-champs of the Border league.

Never did New Mexico fall so miserably during the entire season as against the white-shirted tribe. Observers declared the team had conquered foes with power equal to the Utes, but there were no alibis for the Sun Bowl loss. It was on the same field that the Cherry and Silver met its first defeat of the season against Texas Mines (now UTEP).

Placed on equal ground before the fray, the two teams were as unevenly matched as a flyweight in the ring with a heavy. The Utes smashed across two touchdowns in the first quarter and followed it up with a 20-0 margin at the half. When New Mexico did not take advantage of breaks given them in the last periods, the Utes coasted in to another score, using two teams with equal results.

Though the bowl was not filled to capacity, more than 500 perched on the barren hills surrounding the field. The crowd stripped overcoats and concessionaires did a rush business in sun glasses because of the summery temperature. The tang of autumn football weather was entirely lacking.

1944 SUN BOWL
Jan. 1, 1944 • El Paso, Texas
Southwestern 7, New Mexico 0

(Note: The following story was written by A.V. Gullette from the Associated Press and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

A final quarter forward pass, starring tailback R.W. MacGruder of San Marcos, gave Southwestern of Texas a 7-0 victory over the University of New Mexico in the 9th Annual Sun Bowl.

The 37-yard toss from fullback R.L. Cooper clicked after the underdog New Mexico Lobos had beaten back the highly-touted ground game of Southwestern's Pirates through three quarters and eight minutes of the final period. The Pirates took the ball at the start of the fourth quarter on the 13. A pass, MacGruder to Cooper, made 27 and the two backs hit the line for a first down and MacGruder broke loose for 22 yards to the New Mexico 19.

Here New Mexico held and taking the pigskin, punted to the 46. Cooper passed to Hollon, Pirate end, for a first down and then to MacGruder for the winning tally.

The Lobos threatened only twice, in the second and third periods, but could not get beyond the Southwestern 16.

The game started under cloudy skies, but the sun broke through in the second half and playing conditions were nearly ideal.

The vaunted Southwestern defense held the Lobos to just four first downs and 48 yards total offense.

1946 SUN BOWL
Jan. 1, 1946 • El Paso, Texas
New Mexico 34, Denver 24

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and Albuquerque Journal writer Clayton Byers. It was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Don Rumley, a 19-year-old Navy reservist from Princeton, Ill., led New Mexico to a 34-24 victory over Denver University in the 11th Annual Sun Bowl. The 180-pound halfback passed for three touchdowns and rushed for another in the highest scoring game in the 11 years of this New Year's Day football event.

A crowd of 15,000 was on its feet throughout a 28-point fourth period in which New Mexico came from behind to capture its first bowl victory in three attempts. It was also the first victory for a Border Conference team in the El Paso game's history.

Denver, Big Seven champion, rolled up 10 points before New Mexico countered, and remained dangerous the last scoring its final touchdown with less than two minutes to play.

A 63-yard dash with an interception sent fullback Rudy Krall over with UNM's first score in the second period. Krall and Rumley engineered a 70-yard drive to set up the next score when Rumley scooted in from nine yards for a 13-10 Lobo lead.

Then, after a scoreless New Mexico third period, when Denver had regained the lead at 17-13, Rumley whipped out two aerials for touchdowns to sub end William Moseley and a third to Lavon McDonald.

One reason the Lobos were Sun Bowl champs is a story of gridiron heroism. It's about Fred Doar, UNM's star center, chief linebacker and kicker.

The 210-pound Navy trainee was on the bottom of a heap in the first play of the game. After that he played outstanding ball stopping Denver backs time after time. But teammates noticed their captain wasn't "talking it up" as usual. In fact, he was silent. X-rays after the game showed that Doar had broken his jaw in two places on the first play.

Blue skies and a blazing sun made it baseball weather for the game. Nearly 16,000 short-sleeved customers heard a minister intone a prayer dedicating this game to the nine members of the Lobos' 1939 Sun Bowl team who left the football field to die on the battle field during World War II.

Bowl History

1947 HARBOR BOWL
Jan. 1, 1947 -- San Diego, Calif.
New Mexico 13, Montana State 13

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

The University of New Mexico Lobos came from behind to earn a 13-13 tie with Montana State College in the first San Diego Harbor Bowl before a crowd of 7,000.

Both teams displayed a flashy brand of football which kept the fans on edge throughout.

New Mexico opened the scoring soon after the game started when Hubert Hackett connected on a 26-yard pass to Lou Cullen. Hackett's place kick was wide.

Montana State surged back shortly after the second period started sparked by Neil Brooks 48-yard dash from scrimmage to paydirt. The placekick was blocked but Gene Bourdet picked up the ball and ran over for the extra point (allowed at this time).

Bill Nelson set the stage for the next score when he took Bourdet's short pass at midfield and streaked 42 yards down the sideline to the Lobo 8. After three plays netted just one yard, Bourdet passed to Ken Card on fourth down putting the Bobcats in front. The kick was again blocked.

The Lobos tied the count early in the fourth quarter as Cullen and quarterback Bryan Brock combined to engineer a 75-yard drive on the ground and through the air. Brock scored from two yards out cutting over tackle. Hackett's kick was good to knot the score.

The Lobos had a chance to win the game in the final minutes. UNM drove to the Montana State 12, however, Brock was thrown for a 12-yard loss. Hackett eventually tried a field goal from 35 yards out but failed.

1961 AVIATION BOWL
Dec. 9, 1961 -- Dayton, Ohio
New Mexico 28, Western Michigan 12

(Note: The following story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Dan Russell and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

New Mexico struck for early touchdowns in both the first and third quarters to defeat Western Michigan, 28-12 in a chilled Aviation Bowl football game.

Freezing weather, including sleet and snow, nearly grounded the inaugural (and only) Aviation contest and limited the contest to approximately 4,000 fans even though advance sales had surpassed 5,000.

New Mexico drove for two touchdowns to open the game and to also open the second half. Then it capitalized on Western errors to add the two other touchdowns.

Two fumble recoveries in the first quarter helped set up the second touchdown of the game. Chuck Cummings intercepted a pass and streaked 43 yards for the final Lobo touchdown.

Quarterback Jim Cromartie plunged for three yards for New Mexico's first touchdown. Halfback Bobby Santiago picked up the second touchdown from 10 yards out, and Bobby Morgan also went over from the 10 for the third score.

Santiago, who suffered bruised ribs at the end of the first half and saw only limited action in the second half, was voted the top back of the game. Santiago gained a total of 86 yards and had a 60-yard touchdown run nullified by a clipping penalty. Cummings was voted the outstanding lineman.

"Our kids were really up," said UNM head coach Bill Weeks. "They came to play and they hit hard and executed well throughout. Santiago and Cummings were outstanding and I felt that Bobby Morgan had his best game of the year."

1997 INSIGHT.COM BOWL
Dec. 27, 1997 -- Tucson, Ariz.
Arizona 20, New Mexico 14

New Mexico would lose its first bowl game in 36 years, 20-14, on Arizona's home field. The Cats struck first, scoring on Kelvin Eafon's 15-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter.

UNM took almost no time in the second stanza to knot the score. Graham Leigh ran 17 yards for a first down, then tossed a 15-yard TD pass to senior Milton Thomas. Colby Cason's PAT tied the score at 7-7 and completed the eight-play 69-yard scoring drive.

On Arizona's next possession, quarterback Brady Batten threw for 51 yards and Trung Canidate ran for 13 more, including a three-yard touchdown, which allowed the Wildcats to reclaim the lead, 13-7. UA missed the PAT.

The Lobos marched right back down the field, reeling off a 14-play, 45-yard drive. UNM could not cash in on its possession, however, as Colby Cason missed a 37-yard field goal.

The second half began in a disastrous fashion for the Lobo offense, as it went three-and-out on its first possession, then Leigh threw two consecutive interceptions. The resiliency of the UNM defense was the only thing preventing Arizona from increasing its lead, as the Lobos forced the Wildcats to punt on each of their first two series.

After Leigh's second interception of the quarter - his third of the game - UA capitalized. Canidate rushed for 30 yards, culminating with Eafon's 1-yard TD. The score upped Arizona's lead to 20-7 with 2:07 left in the third quarter.

Once again, UNM would not allow Arizona to keep its momentum. Leigh found Brian Messer for a 35-yard gain on the Lobos' first play from scrimmage. Two plays later, Leigh found Chris Shelton over the middle for an 18-yard gain to the Wildcat four. Leigh found paydirt on the next play, and with the five-play, 60-yard drive, New Mexico was right back in the game, trailing only 20-14.

New Mexico would get one more chance to stage a rally, taking over at the UA 48 with 5:31 remaining. On second-and-nine, Leigh dropped back and spotted Pascal Volz flashing across the middle downfield. His pass sailed just a bit, however, landing right in the arms of Wildcat DB Kelly Malveaux to seal it for the Cats.

Bowl History

2002 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Dec. 25, 2002 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
UCLA 27, New Mexico 13

The Lobo football team did more giving than receiving on Christmas Day, giving the UCLA Bruins three turnovers, which they turned into 17 points, as UCLA beat New Mexico 27-13 in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl.

Following a DonTrell Moore fumble, UCLA got on the board first with a Nate Fikse 49-yard field goal. UNM then took a 6-3 lead when senior cornerback Desmar Black picked off UCLA QB Drew Olson's pass in the flat and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown at the 8:20 mark of the first quarter. Junior kicker Katie Hnida then made her first career appearance, but had her extra point blocked. Already the first and only woman to dress for an NCAA Division I bowl game, Hnida became the first woman to make an appearance in an NCAA Div. I-A football game.

"I made the decision to let Katie (Hnida) kick the first extra point," head coach Rocky Long said. "She has been a vital part of this team all year, and I felt that she deserved the opportunity to make a play."

The Lobos' had a chance to increase their lead in the second quarter after driving to the UCLA 17, but Kenny Byrd's 34-yard FG attempt sailed wide right, ending a UNM streak of 19 straight scores in the red zone. Fikse connected on his second field goal from 39 yards out to knot the game at 6-6 with 6:21 remaining in the second quarter. The kick was set up by a questionable pass interference penalty on the Lobos in the end zone.

The UCLA special teams rose to the occasion when Craig Bragg took a punt back 74 yards early in the third to give the Bruins a 13-6 lead. More bad luck followed in the fourth quarter as QB Casey Kelly's throw bounced off the back of TE Zach Cresap into the waiting arms of Jarrad Page. Page returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to give UCLA a 20-6 advantage.

On the next Lobo possession, WR Joe Manning caught a pass from Kelly only to be stripped of the ball. New Mexico's third turnover of the game set up a 1-yard leap by freshman Tyler Ebell, handing the Bruins a 27-6 lead. Kelly found Manning in the back of the end zone for a touchdown that brought the Lobos to within 27-13, but New Mexico would get no closer.

Kelly finished with a season-high 237 yards. Moore, hobbled by a sprained right ankle late in the second quarter, was limited to 17 yards on 14 carries. The defense certainly did its part, holding the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards. UCLA only had to travel 76 yards for its three offensive scores, two field goals and a touchdown.

2003 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Dec. 24, 2003 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
Oregon State 55, New Mexico 14

Steven Jackson tied a bowl game record with five touchdowns, and Oregon State's defense overwhelmed mistake-plagued New Mexico in a 55-14 win. Jackson ran for 149 yards on 28 carries. He caught a 34-yard pass from Derek Anderson five minutes into the game and added touchdown runs of 3, 11, 6, and 1 yards.

Former NFL star Barry Sanders scored five touchdowns for Oklahoma State against Wyoming in the 1988 Holiday Bowl, and Sheldon Canley of San Jose State had five against Central Michigan in the 1990 California Bowl.

The Lobos' scores came on a 27-yard pass from Casey Kelly to Hank Baskett in the first quarter and Kole McKamey's 17-yard toss to Dwight Counter in the fourth.

Unable to run or pass against OSU's defense, the Lobos had only one first down in the first half and 21 total yards through the first three quarters. The stats also included 6 yards rushing, seven first downs and 127 total yards.

New Mexico got its second first down on a 46-yard pass from wide receiver Baskett to Counter with just more than 10 minutes left. DonTrell Moore, who led the Mountain West Conference with 1,438 yards this season, finished with 12 yards on 10 carries. His second-quarter fumble at the New Mexico 15 led to Jackson's third TD and second in a span of 1:39.

New Mexico had the fourth-best rushing defense in the country this season, but after gaining just 11 yards in the first quarter, Jackson found plenty of holes and scoring chances.

Oregon State scored on its first two possessions, with Jackson catching a 34-yard screen pass from Anderson on third-and-19 and Kirk Yliniemi booting a 21-yard field goal.

New Mexico kept the Beavers' touchdown drive going with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty for celebrating too long and too loudly after stopping Jackson for a 2-yard loss on third down at the OSU 40. The Lobos then sacked Anderson for a 10-yard loss, but the Lobos were offsides on the play.

Both teams entertained the Christmas Eve crowd of 25,437 with first-half trick plays that produced a touchdown for the Beavers and set up New Mexico's first score.

The Beavers scored on the final play of the first quarter on a 42-yard flea flicker. Anderson handed off to Jackson, who tossed it back to the quarterback for a pass to Mike Hass, who had beaten cornerback Brandon Payne.

New Mexico used a pass from wide receiver Michael Brunker to backup quarterback McKamey to set up the Kelly-to-Baskett score.

2004 EMERALD BOWL
Dec. 30, 2004 -- San Francisco
Navy 34, New Mexico 19

Aaron Polanco ran for three touchdowns and passed for another, and Navy capped the academy's best season in 99 years with a 34-19 win over New Mexico in the Emerald Bowl.

Polanco scored on runs of 14, 1 and 27 yards and completed a 61-yard touchdown pass to Corey Dryden, the longest of the season by Polanco and the first career score by Dryden. The Midshipmen's defense was impressive, too, despite the rain-soaked field at SBC Park.

The unit forced two first-half turnovers that led to TDs and staged a goal-line stand late in the third quarter. Then Navy kept the ball for the next 14 minutes, 26 seconds, and held New Mexico to only seven plays in the fourth quarter.

The Midshipmen (10-2) tied for the most wins in school history, last accomplished when Navy went 10-1-1 in 1905. It was a fitting end for the Mids, some of whom will head off to war in the coming year. Only two months ago, Navy's players dealt with the death of former teammate JP Blecksmith in a military operation in Fallujah, Iraq.

Polanco finished the season with 16 rushing touchdowns, a record by a quarterback this year. Temple's Walter Washington ran for 15. Polanco gained a Navy bowl record 133 yards on the ground for his fourth 100-yard rushing game and threw for 101 yards. He even caught a 17-yard pass from Frank Divis to set up his second TD - and his two receptions were the most by any Navy player.

New Mexico quarterback Kole McKamey had nearly as big a day after the Lobos (7-5) lost star tailback DonTrell Moore to a torn left ACL late in the first quarter.

McKamey threw for 207 yards and also rushed for 138, the first Lobos player to accomplish the feat since Graham Leigh in 1997. But McKamey threw two interceptions.

Moore, who has rushed for more than 1,000 yards in each of the past three seasons and came in averaging 108.3 yards per game, was carted off the field after catching a shovel pass and taking a hard hit from cornerback Vaughn Kelley that caused Moore to fumble with 3:52 left in the first quarter.

Linebacker Lane Jackson pounced on the ball for his first fumble recovery this year, and Polanco scored five plays later. Jackson also made an interception as time expired in the first half.

Navy built a 21-7 lead eight seconds into the second quarter on Polanco's 61-yard touchdown pass to Dryden.

The Lobos couldn't stop Navy's impressive triple-option offense. The Midshipmen snapped New Mexico's five-game winning streak and kept the Lobos from their first bowl victory in 43 years.

New Mexico lost in the Las Vegas Bowl the past two years and hasn't won a postseason game since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl. The Lobos had won 11 straight games when they scored first.

2006 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 23, 2006 -- Albuquerque
San Jose State 20, New Mexico 12

San Jose State linebacker Matt Castelo saw New Mexico halfback Rodney Ferguson hit the hole near the goal line and prepared for a collision.

"I saw the running back get the ball and it was like in slow motion," Castelo said. "I got down low and I think he tried jumping over me. Tried to put the ball out for a touchdown."

Ferguson never made it to the end zone.

Castelo hit Ferguson and his helmet knocked the ball out and right into fellow linebacker Damaja Jones' hands. In a season where San Jose State's defense carried the Spartans to their first bowl game in 16 years, Castelo and Jones teamed up for what may have been the biggest stop of the year.

Adam Tafralis threw three touchdown passes and San Jose State beat New Mexico 20-12 on Saturday in the inaugural New Mexico Bowl, extending the Lobos' postseason drought to 45 years.

One big pass play by Tafralis and that costly fumble by Ferguson — both in the first half — set the tone for the Spartans' first bowl win outside of California.

Jones returned Ferguson's fumble 57 yards to the New Mexico 37. Although the Spartans didn't score on that drive, they had the momentum for good.

"I saw Matt set him (Ferguson) up," Jones said. "He tried to jump over Matt and Matt put his helmet right on the ball. I was trying to get over the top and the ball fell right in my hands."

For the Spartans (9-4), the win provided a final highlight in a season in which they won more games than they had in the three previous seasons.

Tafralis, who was 11-of-18 for 209 yards, threw scoring passes of 36 and 24 yards to James Jones and 76 yards to John Broussard. The pass to Broussard on the first play of the second quarter — in which New Mexico's defense totally blew the coverage — got the Spartans' offense rolling.

New Mexico's only touchdown came with 15 seconds left in the game on a 15-yard pass from Chris Nelson to Marcus Smith. The rest of the Lobos' scoring consisted of a 40-yard field goal by Kenny Byrd with 1:11 left in the second quarter and a safety when San Jose State punter Waylon Prather stepped out of the end zone with 1:08 left.

Byrd's field goal was his 25th straight from 40 yards or closer and the first made field goal by New Mexico in 10 bowl appearances.

San Jose State struck first after the teams combined for seven punts in the first quarter.

Tafralis found Broussard 20 yards behind the nearest Lobo. Broussard caught the pass at the 35 and easily scored.

New Mexico came right back with a drive that started with DeAndre Wright's kickoff return to the San Jose State 40. Eight plays later the Lobos had a first-and-goal at the 1. The Spartans' defense toughened and on third-and-goal from the 2, Ferguson fumbled.

The Spartans made it 13-0 on Tafralis' 36-yard pass to James Jones with 3:59 left in the first half. James Jones caught the ball near the sideline at the New Mexico 16 and slipped out of the grasp of Wright. Matt Strubeck missed the extra point.

The Lobos' offense had 377 total yards but was stagnant most of the day. Neither freshman quarterback Donovan Porterie, who started, nor Nelson, who played in the second half, could sustain drives. What plays did work often were erased by holding penalties and three second-half fumbles, including one by wide receiver Travis Brown at the San Jose State 1 with just over 3 minutes left.

Ferguson, who led the Mountain West Conference in rushing this season, had 102 yards on 22 carries.

James Jones and Broussard each had 106 yards receiving, Jones with six catches and Broussard with four.

2007 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 22, 2007 -- Albuquerque
New Mexico 23, Nevada 0

For coach Rocky Long, it was just the next game, another brick to continue building his program. For delighted New Mexico fans, it marked the end of a 46-year skid.

Paul Baker ran for 167 yards in his first start, and Donovan Porterie threw for career-high 354 yards and two touchdowns to help New Mexico beat Nevada 23-0 in the New Mexico Bowl. The Lobos (9-4) ended a 46-year span without a postseason victory and gave Long, the team's 10th-year coach, his first bowl win in five tries.

"It gets it off our back. We don't have to listen to it anymore," Long said. "But this program was good before we won today."

John Sullivan made field goals from 53, 39 and 37 yards, but give credit to New Mexico's defense, which delivered just the second shutout loss for Nevada under Hall of Fame coach Chris Ault.

The Wolf Pack (6-7) hadn't gone scoreless since losing 10-0 to Weber State on Sept. 27, 1980, a span of 329 games -- the longest current streak in college football and the second longest in history. It's the first time Nevada was shut out since moving to Division I-A in 1992.

"It's certainly a compliment to their defense," Ault said. "They played a great game. At the other end of the spectrum, we played as poorly on offense as we've played in a long time."

It was New Mexico's first bowl victory since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl at Dayton, Ohio. The Lobos also notched a nine-win season for just the fourth time in school history.

"I'm very proud of our team," Long said. "I thought they were as focused as they've been all year long for any game."

Bowl History

New Mexico's defenders pestered redshirt freshman quarterback Colin Kaepernick all afternoon and made Nevada's "Pistol" offense look more like a pop-gun. The Wolf Pack averaged 36.2 points and 488.9 yards during the season. Nevada had logged 23 scoring plays that covered at least 25 yards -- second only to Oklahoma's 25 big-play TDs.

This time, Nevada had 210 total yards, with only 73 yards rushing. On a chilly day, with the temperature at kickoff 34 degrees, Kaepernick finished 13-of-31 for 137 yards. He had 10 carries for 40 yards rushing.

"Everybody was locked in," linebacker Brett Madsen said. "They have a really explosive offense. The quarterback can really run. We knew we had to contain the quarterback, and he didn't do much with his legs."

Madsen, despite not starting, was selected the defensive player of the game after recording two sacks, two tackles for lost yardage and four total tackles. But he agreed the award could have gone to any New Mexico defender.

Baker made the most of his chance. He moved into the starting lineup this week when Rodney Ferguson, New Mexico's leading rusher over the past two seasons, was ruled academically ineligible.

"My team believed in me and that was enough," Baker said. "I knew I could get it done."

The Wolf Pack blocked two field goals, Sullivan missed another 43-yard try and the Lobos failed to score after having first-and-goal at the 4 late in the third quarter. But Nevada just couldn't take advantage.

"We didn't do a good job with any consistency on the run game or the pass game," Ault said. "Colin Kaepernick didn't have a chance to get into type of rhythm. We just shot ourselves in the foot."

Despite the cool weather, Porterie had no trouble warming up. He threw a short slant pass on the third play from scrimmage to Marcus Smith, who raced to the end zone for a 66-yard scoring play. Later in the period, Brown got behind the Nevada defense and Porterie found him on a 39-yard TD pass.

2015 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL

Arizona 45, New Mexico 37

It was nearly one of the greatest comebacks in school history. Nearly. In the end, the Lobos whittled an 18-point second half deficit down to five, and then with a chance to go for the tie threw an interception as the Arizona Wildcats defeated New Mexico 45-37 in a highly entertaining 10th Annual Gildan New Mexico Bowl in front of a crowd of 30,289.

Both teams combined for 1,025 yards of offense, with UNM gaining 333 on the ground and 189 in the air. Arizona was about the opposite with 174 on the ground and 329 via the air. Things looked bleak when Lamar Jordan threw an interception on a play starting at his own 1-yard line that led to a short touchdown run and a 42-24 Wildcat lead with 7:35 left in the third quarter. Jordan, who played well with 135 yards rushing and a 110 yards passing, got UNM back in it with his third rushing touchdown to make it 42-31.

Jason Sanders then hit a perfect surprise onside kick that Donnie Duncan recovered for New Mexico. Jordan got hurt on the drive, leaving the game for good, and Austin Apodaca came in and scored his first career rushing touchdown on an option keeper to make it 42-37. The Lobos went for two and missed the conversion.

UNM got the break it needed on a missed field goal, but UNM turned the ball over on downs. On second-and-3 at the Wildcat 18, DaVonte' Neal broke up a pass intended for Carlos Wiggins, and then Chris Davis fumbled an option pitch for a loss of seven yards. On fourth-and-13 in no-man's land, UNM went for it but Apodaca was sacked. That led to a field goal and a 45-37 lead for Arizona, with one last chance for UNM.

Taking over at the 26 with 1:29 and no timeouts, UNM picked up two first downs to get to the Arizona 36, but there was just 35 seconds left. Looking for a big hitter, Apodaca was pressured and his pass missed Dameon Gamblin and fell into the waiting arms of Cam Denson for a game ending interception.

UNM opened the scoring with a 37-yard Zack Rogers field goal, but Arizona used a couple of long passes to go up 14-3. Jordan had his first rushing touchdown of the day to cut into that lead, but Arizona answered on an Anu Solomon run.

UNM scored an unlikely touchdown on a 92-yard pass from Jordan to Delane Hart-Johnson, the second-longest in UNM history and the fourth-longest in bowl history. Hart-Johnson outraced his brother Will Parks to the pylon for the score.

However, Arizona scored just before, and just after halftime to boost the lead to 18, setting the stage for UNM's near-comeback.

UNM Administration

Garnett S. Stokes

President

Garnett S. Stokes began serving as the 23rd president of The University of New Mexico on March 1, 2018. She is the first woman to hold the post in the university's history.

A tireless advocate for a transformative student experience, an empowered faculty, and a campus culture of continuous improvement, Stokes brings to New Mexico's premiere R1 university more than four decades of experience and enthusiasm—as well as the unflagging energy needed to ensure The University of New Mexico thrives as a great place to work, live, and learn.

Shortly after taking office in 2018, Stokes journeyed on an unprecedented statewide "listening tour," covering 4,300 miles as she travelled through all 33 of New Mexico's diverse counties. Her meetings with thousands of New Mexicans—hearing their stories, and learning of their hopes and expectations—helped frame her immediate presidential priorities of promoting campus safety, supporting student veterans, and advancing the University's mission of world-class research. Stokes continues to hold regular office hours, routinely engaging with faculty, staff, and students for their input and commentary.

Throughout her distinguished career as an educator and leader, Stokes has been praised for her commitment to building outstanding leadership teams dedicated to student success. At UNM, she continues in this tradition, hiring diverse and talented leaders from across the nation to fill key roles at the university, including the Executive Vice President for Health Sciences, Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs, Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, Vice President for Enrollment and Management, and Vice President for Equity and Inclusion.

Under Stokes's leadership, UNM has embarked on a journey of academic excellence, self-reflection, and collaborative problem-solving to identify effective ways to make the University of New Mexico a better and more engaging place to learn, work, and live. Since her arrival, UNM has received the Carnegie Community Engagement Classification, a designation that indicates institutional commitment to community engagement, and one of only 119 institutions to earn such a designation. UNM is also among the highest number of Fulbright awardees in the country..

As president, Stokes has worked tirelessly to seamlessly coordinate UNM's core missions of conducting top-tier research, compassionate and quality health care and health services, and providing access to a quality education for one of the most diverse student populations in the nation. She has made it a priority to promote and support collaborative efforts of the UNM community that benefit the entire State of New Mexico, a vision that shaped her Grand Challenges initiatives—which focuses research on issues facing New Mexico—and informed the development of UNM's long term roadmap, UNM 2040. In collaboration with the Board of Regents, she continues to strengthen relationships with key stakeholders to advance UNM's mission.

In February 2019, Stokes announced the UNM Grand Challenges, calling on researchers across disciplines to address problems of global, national and regional significance. After receiving proposals from research teams across UNM's campuses, Stokes chose to focus on three key areas as part of the newly-established UNM Grand Challenges: Sustainable Water Resources, Successful Aging, and Substance Use Disorders. She charged researchers with developing goals that enable multiple paths towards solutions and that are relevant across varied disciplines and communities. Since 2019, Grand Challenges teams have generated more than $20 million in funding, and continue to implement education and community outreach events and initiatives to improve lives around the State of New Mexico.

Prior to her arrival at UNM, Stokes served as interim chancellor, provost and executive vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Missouri, and was provost and executive vice president for academic affairs and interim president at Florida State University. She has also been a faculty member, chair of the department of psychology, and dean of the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Georgia

A first-generation college graduate, Stokes earned her B.A. in psychology from Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tennessee, and M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Georgia in industrial/organizational psychology. For nearly three decades, she served as a professor in the psychology department at the University of Georgia, including seven years as dean of UGA's Franklin College of Arts and Sciences.

Her husband, Dr. Jeff Younggren, is a forensic psychologist and a retired Colonel in the U.S. Army. They have two children and four grandchildren. President Stokes and Dr. Younggren reside on campus at University House.

Fernando Lovo

Vice President/Director of Athletics

Fernando Lovo joined the Lobo Family as the University's 14th Vice President and Director of Athletics in December 2024. Lovo came to UNM from the University of Texas at Austin, where he served as Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director for Operations.

Lovo's extensive background in collegiate athletics administration includes roles at the University of Texas, Ohio State University, and the University of Houston, as well as a stint with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. His professional portfolio demonstrates a comprehensive approach to athletics administration, creating high-performance environments that support athletic excellence and student-athlete development. He has a proven track record of operational excellence, revenue generation, fundraising, and an unwavering dedication to academic integrity and financial stewardship. He is well-positioned to lead UNM Athletics into a new era of growth and achievement. At UNM, Lovo oversees all aspects of UNM's NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletic programs, aligning athletics with the University's mission, managing financial operations, ensuring NCAA compliance, and fostering community relationships.

"I am truly honored and humbled to be selected to lead UNM Athletics and build upon its rich tradition, and I am grateful to President Stokes and the search committee members for their belief in me," said Lovo. "This opportunity means a great deal to me, and I am excited to work alongside the talented student-athletes, coaches, and staff at UNM and the entire New Mexico community to achieve new levels of success, both on and off the field.

"My commitment is to foster an environment where our programs can thrive, and our student-athletes can excel in all aspects of their lives," Lovo continued. "I look forward to engaging with the Lobo community, building strong relationships, and ensuring our athletics align with the University's mission and values. Together, we will strive for excellence and create lasting memories for our students and fans. Thank you for welcoming my family and me into this incredible community. Go Lobos!"

In his first year with New Mexico, Lovo oversaw an athletic program that finished 49th in the final Learfield Directors' Cup standings — the best finish among Group of Five schools and the highest finish for a Group of Five school in 12 years. UNM won six Mountain West titles, tied for the fourth-most in school history and the most of any Mountain West school that year, and set numerous academic records, including new marks for Mountain West All-Academic and Scholar-Athlete selections. He was tasked with hiring a new football coach in just his second week on the job, bringing in Jason Eck, one of the hottest names in the coaching ranks. He also hired basketball coach Eric Olen from UC San Diego in what was widely considered one of the best hires of the offseason.

Lovo also guided the department to a record revenue year for Lobo Athletics, growing the overall operating budget of the department by [17.6% from FY25 to FY26], and achieving record marks in ticket sales, multimedia rights, parking, concessions, and trademark and licensing revenue — along with a record year in Lobo Club fundraising.

Lovo had two stints with the University of Texas, including a period from December 2021 until his appointment at UNM, during which he served in several administrative roles. He rejoined Texas as Senior Associate Athletics Director for Facilities and Operations, before being quickly promoted to Senior Associate Athletics Director, Facilities, Capital Projects & Game Operations. His final role with Texas was as Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director – Operations, where, in addition to serving as the sports coordinator for men's basketball and men's and women's tennis, he oversaw nearly half a billion dollars in capital projects.

Lovo spent a year in the National Football League in 2021 with the Jacksonville Jaguars, serving as Chief of Staff—a similar position to the one he held in his first stint with the Longhorns, where he served as Chief of Staff for Football from December 2016 through January 2021.

He began his collegiate career as a Football Operations Coordinator from January 2012 through January 2015 at the Ohio State University before moving to the University of Houston, where he was Assistant A.D. for Football Operations for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. During that time, Houston went 22–5 and laid the foundation for the University's eventual move to the Big XII.

Lovo, just the fourth Lobo AD in the last 32 years at UNM, earned a bachelor's degree in political science and government in 2010 and a Master of Science in Sport and Fitness Administration/Management in 2012, both from the University of Florida.

A native of Miami, Lovo was born in New Orleans. He and his wife, Jordan, have two children, Liam and Layla.

MEDIA

The University of New Mexico football team gets extensive media coverage on a daily basis from the Albuquerque Journal, Daily Lobo, numerous radio outlets, including flagship station 770 KKOB-AM, and three network television stations covering the beat.

LOBOS ON THE RADIO

Every New Mexico game is broadcast over the 18-station Lobo Radio Network, spearheaded by flagship 770 KKOB-AM, at 50,000 watts one of the largest stations in America in terms of geographical penetration. KKOB is also simulcast on 94.5 FM, because it really is better on the FM. Fans outside of KKOB's listening audience can also receive the games over the Internet at www.GoLobos.com with UNM's free audio stream.

In addition to 770 KKOB, the Lobos can also be heard state-wide on the Lobo Radio Network. The Lobo Radio Network currently consists of 18 stations in New Mexico, including:

New Mexico Athletic Communications Wins First Super-11 Award in 2021

Three first-time winners, including The University of New Mexico, and eight previous ones comprise the 13th Annual Super 11 Awards, which the Football Writers Association of America rewards annually to the best performing sports information departments in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The awards announced this week are for the 2021 season.

In addition, the FWAA presented a Super 11 Coach of the Year Award to Boston College Coach Jeff Hafley who granted outstanding access to his program during the 2021 season. He is the fourth head coach to win this award, which began with the 2018 season.

The award for New Mexico is its first Super 11 Award, and it is the first time that the Lobo communications office has been honored for press operations in football since 1988 under former director Greg Remington.

"It's a big honor and recognition for the entire external staff at UNM," said Assistant A.D. for Communications Frank Mercogliano, who oversees football communications. "This reflects Coach Gonzales and how he runs his program. He runs a very open program with tremendous access, which makes our jobs on the external team easy."

The Lobo communications team for 2021 was Frank Mercogliano, Steve Kirkland, Allison Weiss and Alma Solis, and the external team also consisted of Stanley Frazier, Chase Christiansen, Drew Patterson, Jonathan Tibbetts and Corie Apodaca. Joe Thuente served as the Associate A.D. for Marketing and Communications and oversaw the entire external team.

This year's winners were deemed to have had excellent accessibility during the week of the game and after the game – with a program's players, coaches and assistant coaches.

FWAA members provided input during the season and made comments in an FWAA Awards survey after the 2021 season. In addition, SID press boxes were judged on how well they were run and maintained in terms of neutrality, pool reporters and noise level that could affect a media person's ability to do his or her job. In recent years, the availability of nearby press parking has become a plus.

This is the Mountain West

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 27th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements throughout its existence, most notably becoming the first league to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. When the CFP expanded to include 12 teams in 2024, Boise State earned the No. 3 seed and a bye into the quarterfinals of the playoffs, where it faced Penn State in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. For the last 11 academic years, MW student-athletes have participated in monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and a UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the only conference to have the same member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of six conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of four conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas, Phoenix and Reno, home to UNLV, Grand Canyon and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West Coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains. With the addition of Washington State as an affiliate member in women's swimming and baseball, the Mountain West footprint stretches into the Pacific Northwest.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The eight presidents then hired the league's first commissioner, Craig Thompson, on Oct. 15, 1998. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants. On July 1, 2024, Washington State University joined the Mountain West for women's swimming and baseball for a two year period. On July 8, 2025, Grand Canyon University became the league's 12th full time member (non-football).

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Then Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2025 season, the MW has eight (8) postseason opportunities, including a spot in the College Football Playoff (five [5] highest-ranked conference champions, plus the next seven [7] highest-ranked at-large teams), six (6) primary bowl positions with the Los Angeles Bowl, Arizona Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, New Mexico Bowl, Hawai'i Bowl and an ESPN Events-operated bowl, likely to be held in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex - and one (1) secondary position.

This is the Mountain West

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In 2024, the Broncos became the first team from a non-autonomous conference to claim an automatic bid and a playoff bye in the expanded 12-team CFP field. Boise State earned the No. 3 seed, finishing ahead of the Big 12 and ACC champions.

On Dec. 31, 2022, Thompson retired after nearly 24 years at the helm of the MW, and Gloria Nevarez was named the league's second Commissioner, beginning her post on Jan. 1, 2023.

ACADEMIC CONSORTIUM

From the outset, Mountain West member institutions have been committed to creating strong academic relationships, as well as athletic competition. To that end, the chief academic officers of each institution have explored academic exchange programs, library crossovers and shared research. In addition, the faculty athletics representatives routinely provide educational assistance and test-taking services for student-athletes visiting from fellow member institutions for competition.

OPPORTUNITY

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,000 student-athletes each year. Over the past 26 years, 45 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 52 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Five Mountain West student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming, and Delavane Diaz, Brittany Morreale, Rebecca Esselstein and Madelyn Letendre, Air Force).

Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MW and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West SAAC is comprised of 24 members (22 student-athlete representatives, the MW representative to the Division I National SAAC and one faculty athletics representative). The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent groups or committees related to the student-athlete experience. Since the inclusion of two SAAC members at the June 2014 meeting of the MW Board of Directors, the Conference maintains its commitment to the participation of student-athletes in its governance structure, which is consistent with the Mountain West's focus on enhancing the student-athlete experience.

ACHIEVEMENT

The MW has produced 1,843 All-America selections among its 19 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season and women's gymnastics was added in 2023-24) in the last 26 years, including a league-record 103 All-America honorees in 2016-17. A total of 260 MW student-athletes has also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 26 years, capturing five team national championships in women's cross country and producing 60 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, women's diving, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have earned 133 bowl bids under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games and two CFP games. The MW has earned 107 postseason bids in men's basketball, with eight Sweet 16 appearances, one Final Four, one runner-up finish (San Diego State; 2022-23), and three NIT Final Four berths. MW men's basketball has been the best league on the West Coast from 2022-2025, sending at least four teams to the NCAA tournament each of those four seasons, including a record six in 2024. MW women's basketball has tallied 91 postseason slots, including 42 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 51 NCAA bids with nine Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 39 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Mountain West men's golf has sent at least three teams to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals in each of the 25 years the postseason was held (canceled in 2020 due to COVID-19 pandemic), while women's golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 17 of the last 25 years.

SPORTSMANSHIP

The Mountain West has been a driving force for sportsmanship within intercollegiate athletics. As part of its continuing growth and development, the MW implemented an extensive Sportsmanship Initiative, endorsed by both the MW Joint Council and MW Board of Directors. The program is made up of several elements, which are both practical and philosophical in nature. While the MW has significant penalties in place to deal with violations, the Sportsmanship Initiative is primarily promotional and educational in nature. The goal is to develop an environment that fosters appropriate behavior from all Conference constituencies.
